SHS Sought a Unique Image With Shadows Focusing on a New Year

As time rolled by, another year at SHS was fulfilled in a mingled maze of old traditions and new happenings. With the dress code abolished, girls in slacks became a familiar sight. Two bomb threats herded students into safe quarters until police and firemen could search the school. Spirit boomed to an all-time high with the capture of Sectional and Regional title championships. The voice of SHS rang proudly as students identified with the times through IMAGES AND EXPRESSIONS.

Beautiful are the young

Beginning to learn,

Beginning to understand

The realities of life

And the world;

It must all be faced.

The time has come

To release knowledge,

Hoping it will shape into wisdom.

The formation of changing ideas

Implanted in the mind,

Awaiting the chance for cultivation.

The experience of age,

Yet to be added to the open inquisitiveness

Of innocent youth.

ACADEMICS

Physical Fitness—

"Road to Health"

The 1971 Physical Education program, supervised by Coach Duncan, followed the theme of building strong physical bodies to accompany the growing mental stature of SHS students. Bowling, basketball, softball, and volleyball accompanied calisthenics in the body-building program.

The dangers of drugs, alcohol, and cigarettes were brought to the attention of students in health class. Emphasis was placed on personal body care and responsibility of good grooming.

Volleying for the point not only wins the game but helps condition the body's reflexes.

Health class provides many different and interesting subjects. K. Marshall and J. Williams discuss the different effects of dangerous drugs and narcotics.

Judy Vinson and Hazel Vernon become skilled at the game of shuffleboard in P.E. class.

Stamina predominates as L. Sowder leads his gym class in running 'ups and overs'.

Mr. Rosenbaum explains the complex human anatomy to two fascinated freshman health students.

Challenge Leads to Discovery as Math and Science Students Invade the World of Graphs and Equations

Despite an occasional experiment failure, the Science Department of SHS proved to be one of the most interesting and rewarding courses of the year. These courses brought the students a little more understanding of the world around them.

The Math Department provided unlimited enlightenment for the analytical minds of our school. The challenging problems presented in the various classes stimulated the growing intelligence of SHS.

"So that's what's inside those things!" exclaims biology students as Miss Graves lends a hand.

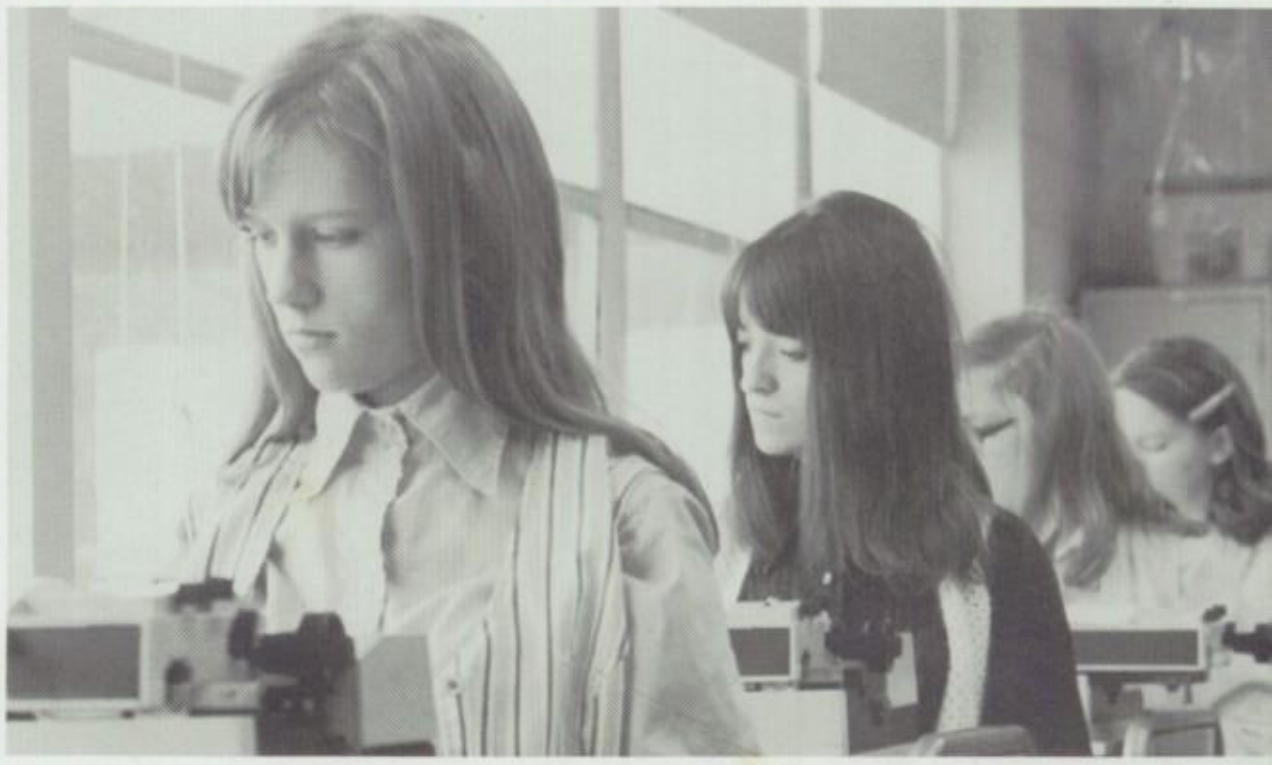
Business Classes Build Foundations For Office and Clerical Careers

The Business Department offered a wide range of courses in practical skills. General business, business law, and marketing taught the basic fundamentals of salesmanship and management along with principles of commerce and economics.

Clerical training was provided in bookkeeping, shorthand, non-vocational office practice, and typing classes. Students learned to operate office machines and to be neat and accurate with their manual work.



Learning the basics of typing gives business students an advantage that often proves indispensable in future years.

Working at the various office machines is part of the valuable training of C. Hook.

Imagination Inspires Variety and Creativity in Art Students at SHS

Freshmen Leah Snider and Marlene Whiteman work hard and diligently at becoming artists.

The Art Department of SHS allowed students to express their individualism through drawings and artistic displays. Under the helping hand of art teacher Richard Trueblood, students prepared hoops for ballgames, made 'spirit' signs to hang in the gym, decorated windows downtown for sectional, wove baskets, and worked with ceramics. Selling 'Lions Number 1' posters for the Semi-State games provided a means of making money for the Art Department.

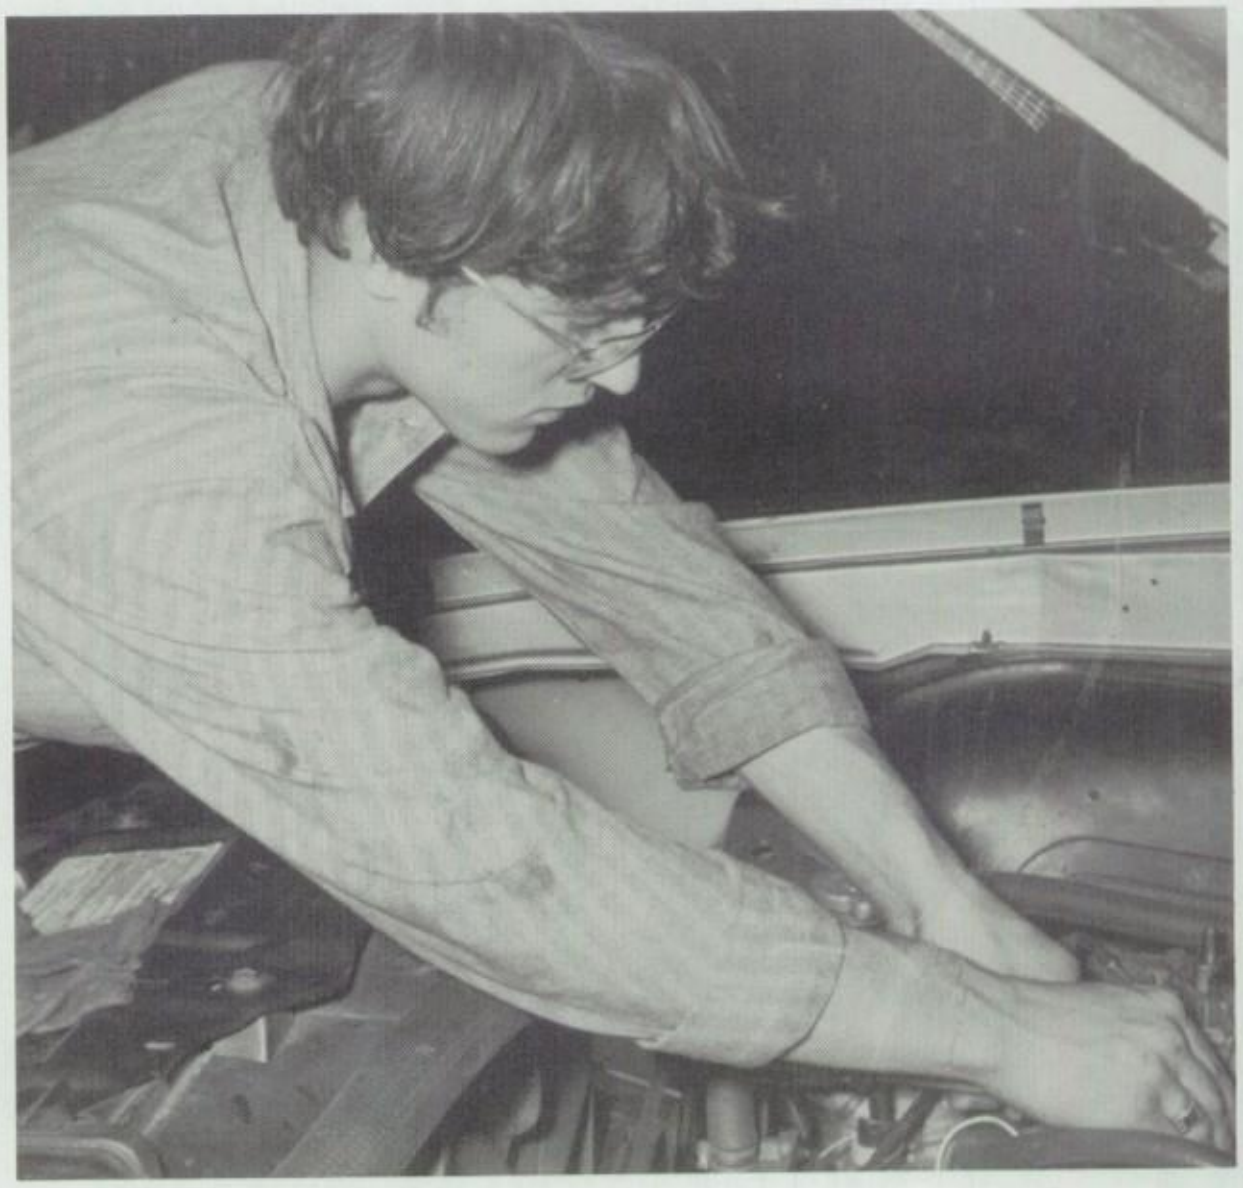
Vocational Classes Start Preparing for the Future With Many Various Types of Training and Techniques

The Vocational Department maintained its excellent rating as it expanded with a new Vocational Opportunities Training Program for on-the-job experience. Auto mechanics boys repaired defective cars. Future nurses acquired knowledge of caring for patients at the hospital and convalescent center. Vocational office practice students learned office fundamentals. The printing class printed THE CUB, tickets, and various programs and bulletins used by the school.

D. Hampton stands guard as the printing press frantically runs off another issue of THE CUB.



It's a welcome change of pace from usual classroom work as senior Gary Howell puts his time in auto mechanics to good use tuning the carburetor of his W-31 Cutlass.

Throughout the year each girl moves from job to job in the Vocational Office Practice Class. K. Chastain, working as receptionist, types a letter assigned to her.

SHS Offers Specialized Training in Industrial Arts

The Industrial Arts Department at SHS continued to offer training in the fields of drafting, woods, metals, graphic arts, welding, and electronics. General shop taught the students about safety and the care and use of instructions in metals and woods. During the year the classes went on field trips to various places of interest. The students received a broad view of what to expect in an industrial career.

New Techniques for Creative Living Are Taught in SHS Home Economics

Sewing machines, pots and pans, needles, good smells, and beautiful clothes, were characteristics of Salem's Home-Economics Department in the past year.

The Home-Ec. classes focused on the following basic subject areas: home management, consumer education, foods and nutrition, housing, clothing, and human development. The girls took part in various activities such as field trips to food stores and fabric shops and two dress reviews.

Library and A.V. Are Aids to Students and Teachers

The library serves as a place for quiet conversation as well as for study and research.

The library and the Audio Visual Department provided many helpful services to students and teachers. Research material and teaching aids were available in the form of books and films. Student librarians aided Mrs. Stephenson in keeping the library in order and helped students find needed materials. Student A.V. assistants filmed and taped classroom activities such as speeches and plays and showed relating educational films in many classes.

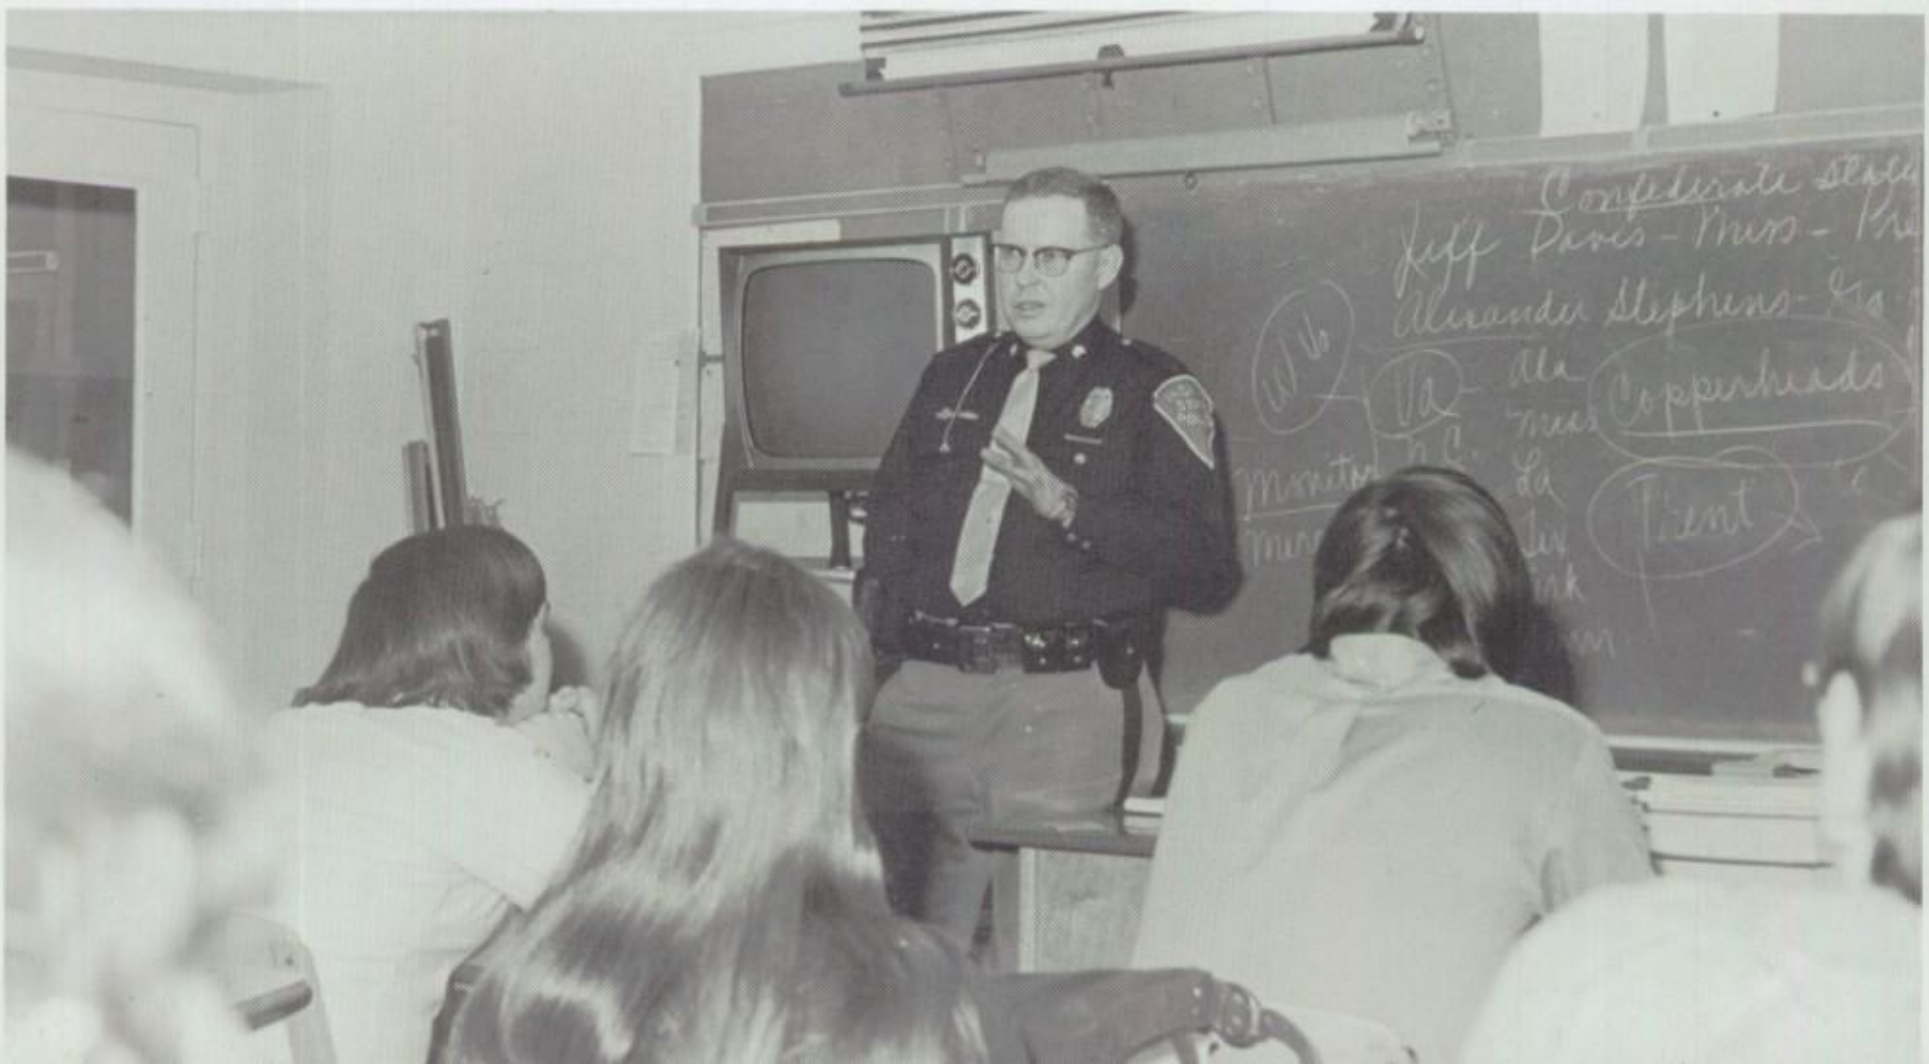
Social Studies Classes Teach Students the History, Government, and Economics of the U.S. and the World

Social studies classes offered World History to sophomores, U.S. History to juniors, and Civics and Economics to seniors. The studies in World History took students all over the map and back into time as far as the first cave men. U.S. History teaching ranged from the discovery of America to the first moon walk. In Civics and Economics classes, different types of governments and economies were studied and compared with the democracy and capitalism of the United States.

Studying outside made history class more interesting for Mr. Calvert's students.

Crime and punishment was the subject of the talk given to the government class by Sgt. White of the Indiana Police Force, but questions about personal experiences soon took over.



Field trips to local offices helped students get a better look at city government.

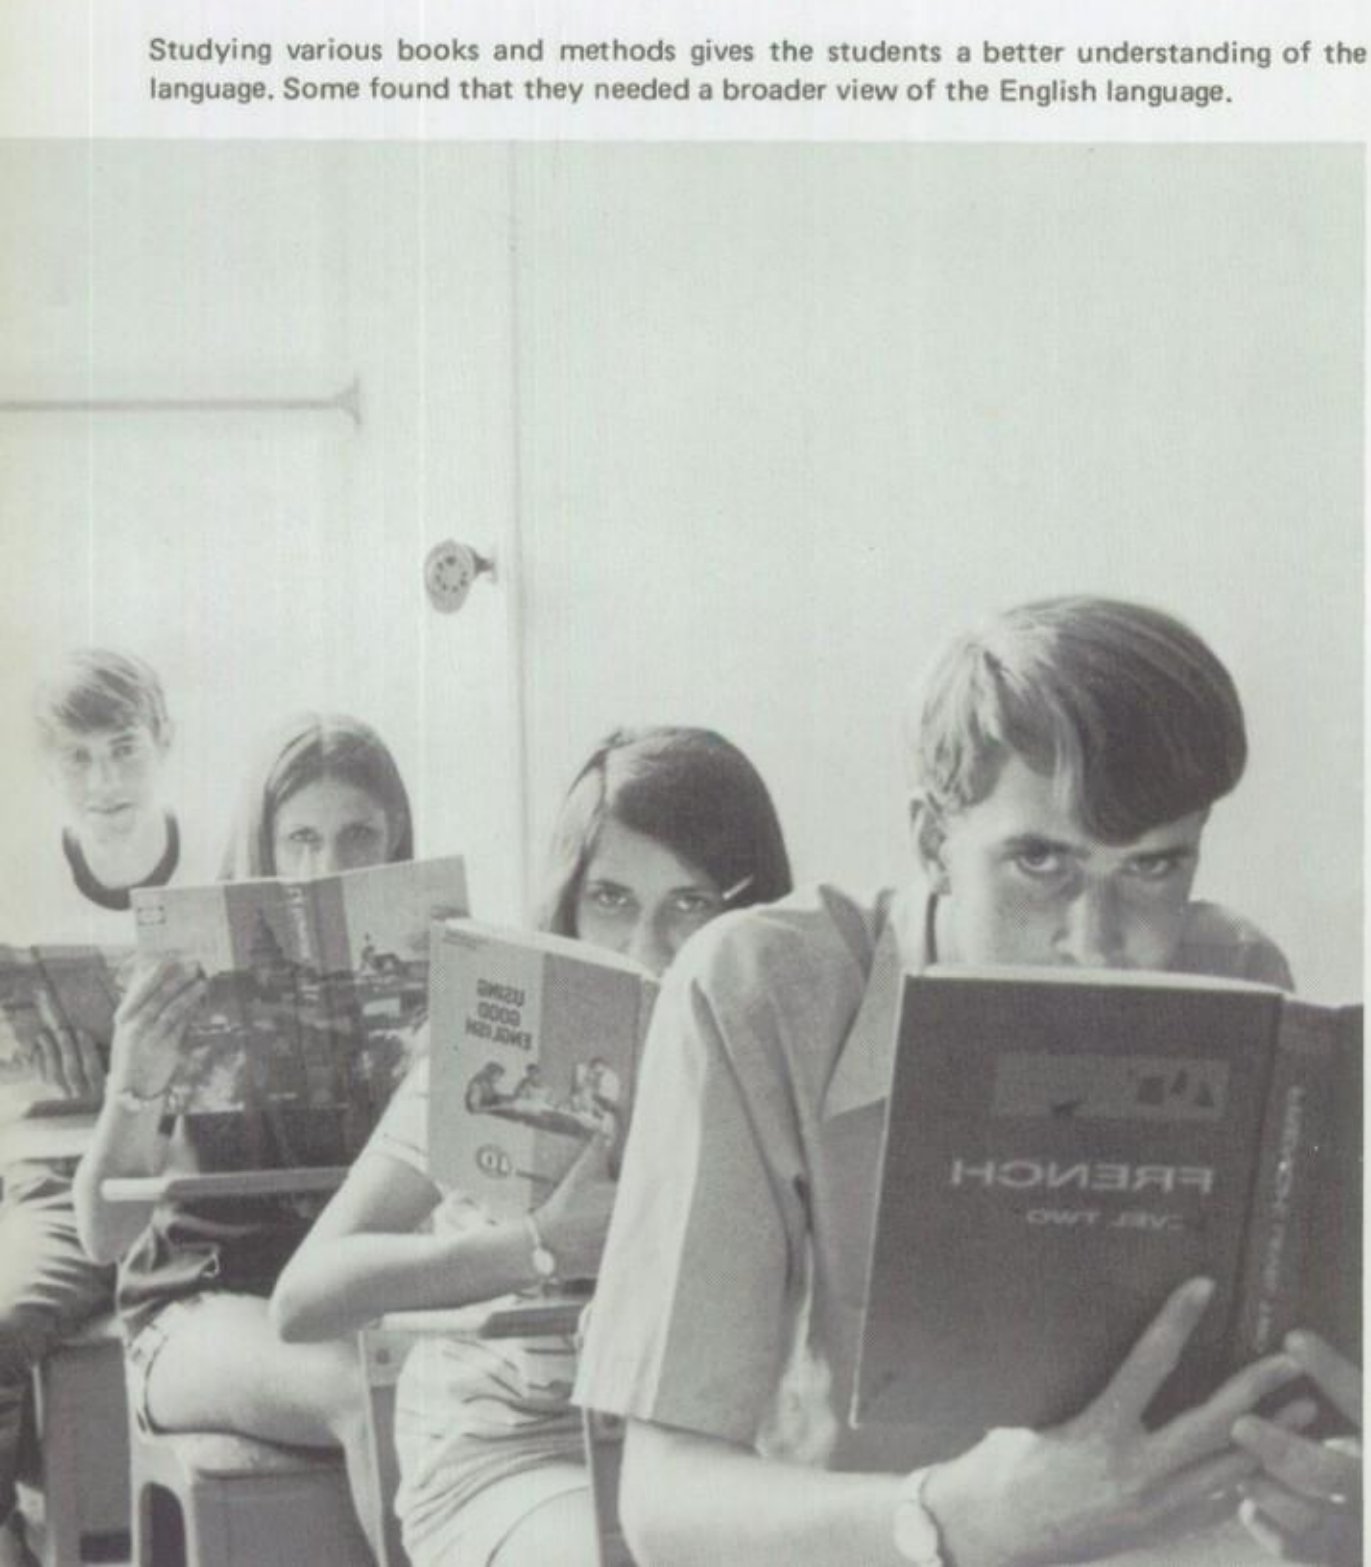
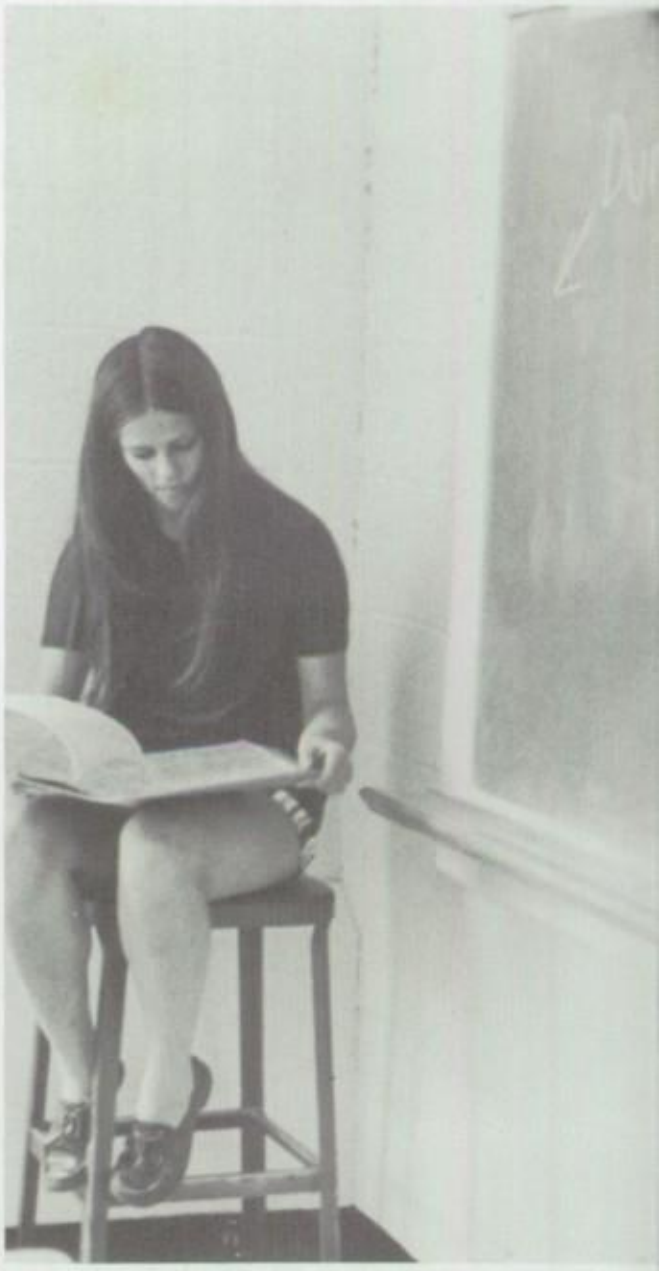
Foreign Language, Tradition, and Culture Are Brought to Light in French, Spanish, and Latin Classes

SHS students had a choice of three foreign languages. Spanish students viewed films on the culture and historical aspects of South America, and played charades with Spanish fairy tales. The Spanish Department's big project was a trip to Mexico. Latin students learned grammar through reading and oral drills, and studied mythology and Roman costumes. French students gave reports and watched films on the history of French culture and civilization.

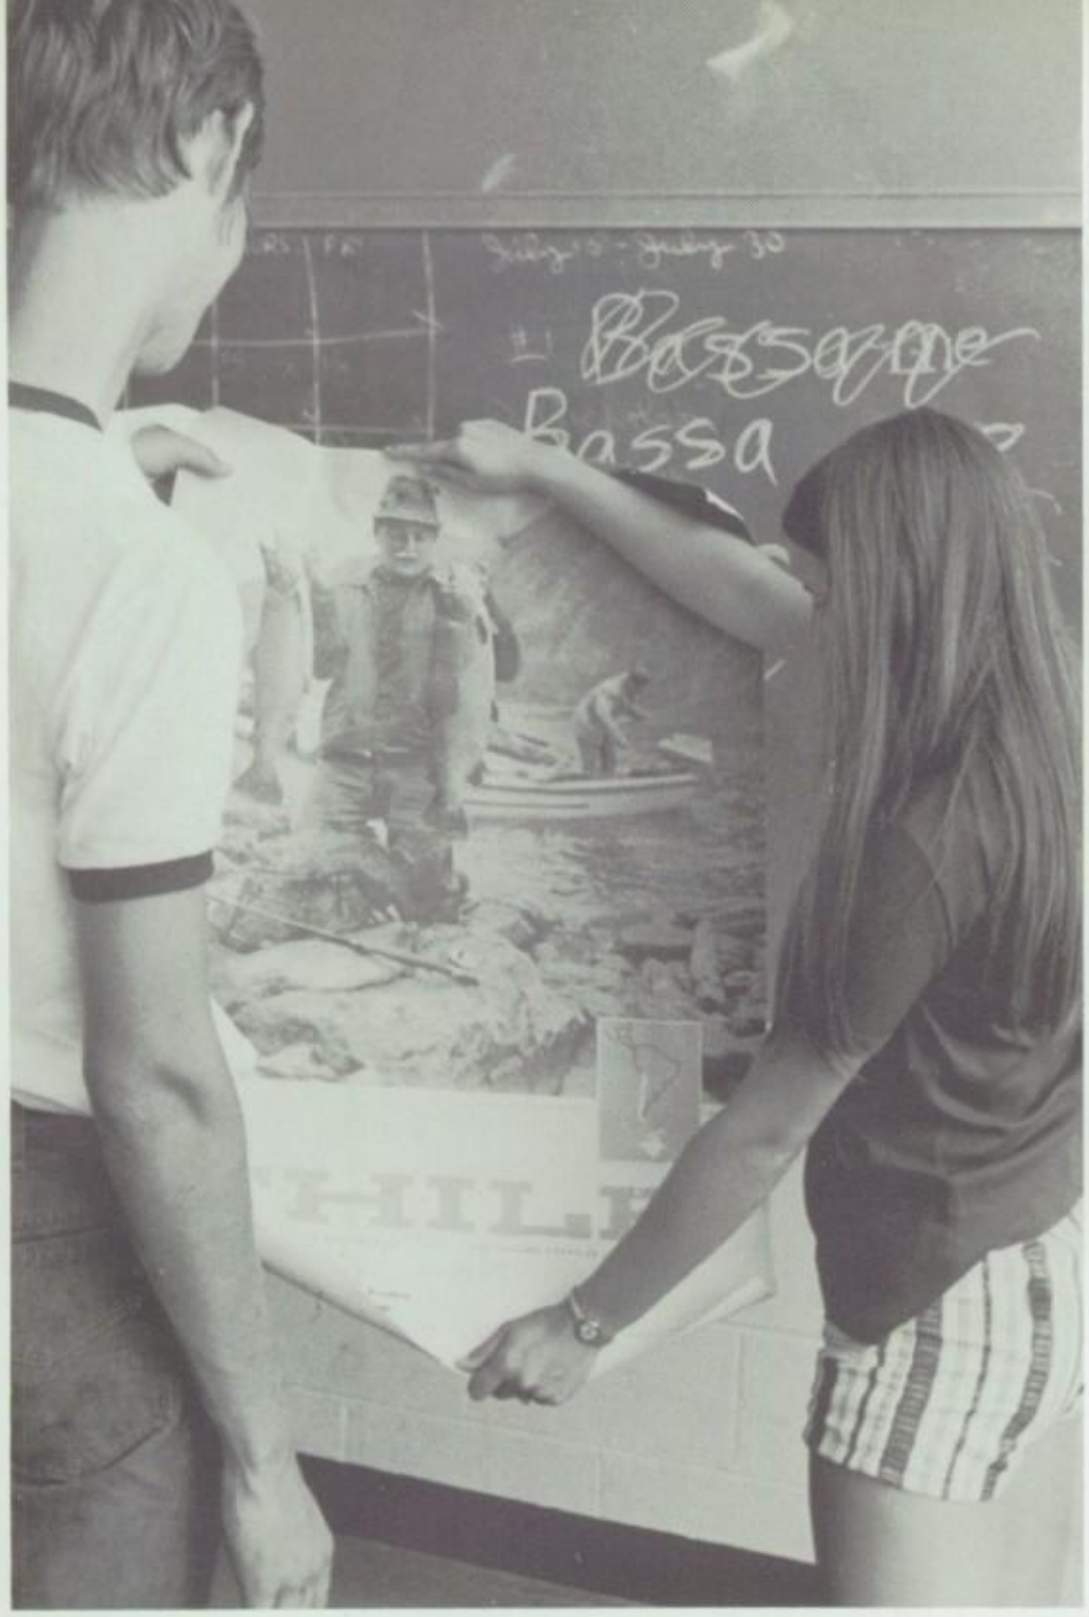
Students find that by working on the board their strong and weak points are found.

Studying various books and methods gives the students a better understanding of the language. Some found that they needed a broader view of the English language.





Solitude, patience, and a sense of humor are needed for looking for derivatives.



Posters serve as visual aids to help students in foreign language courses.

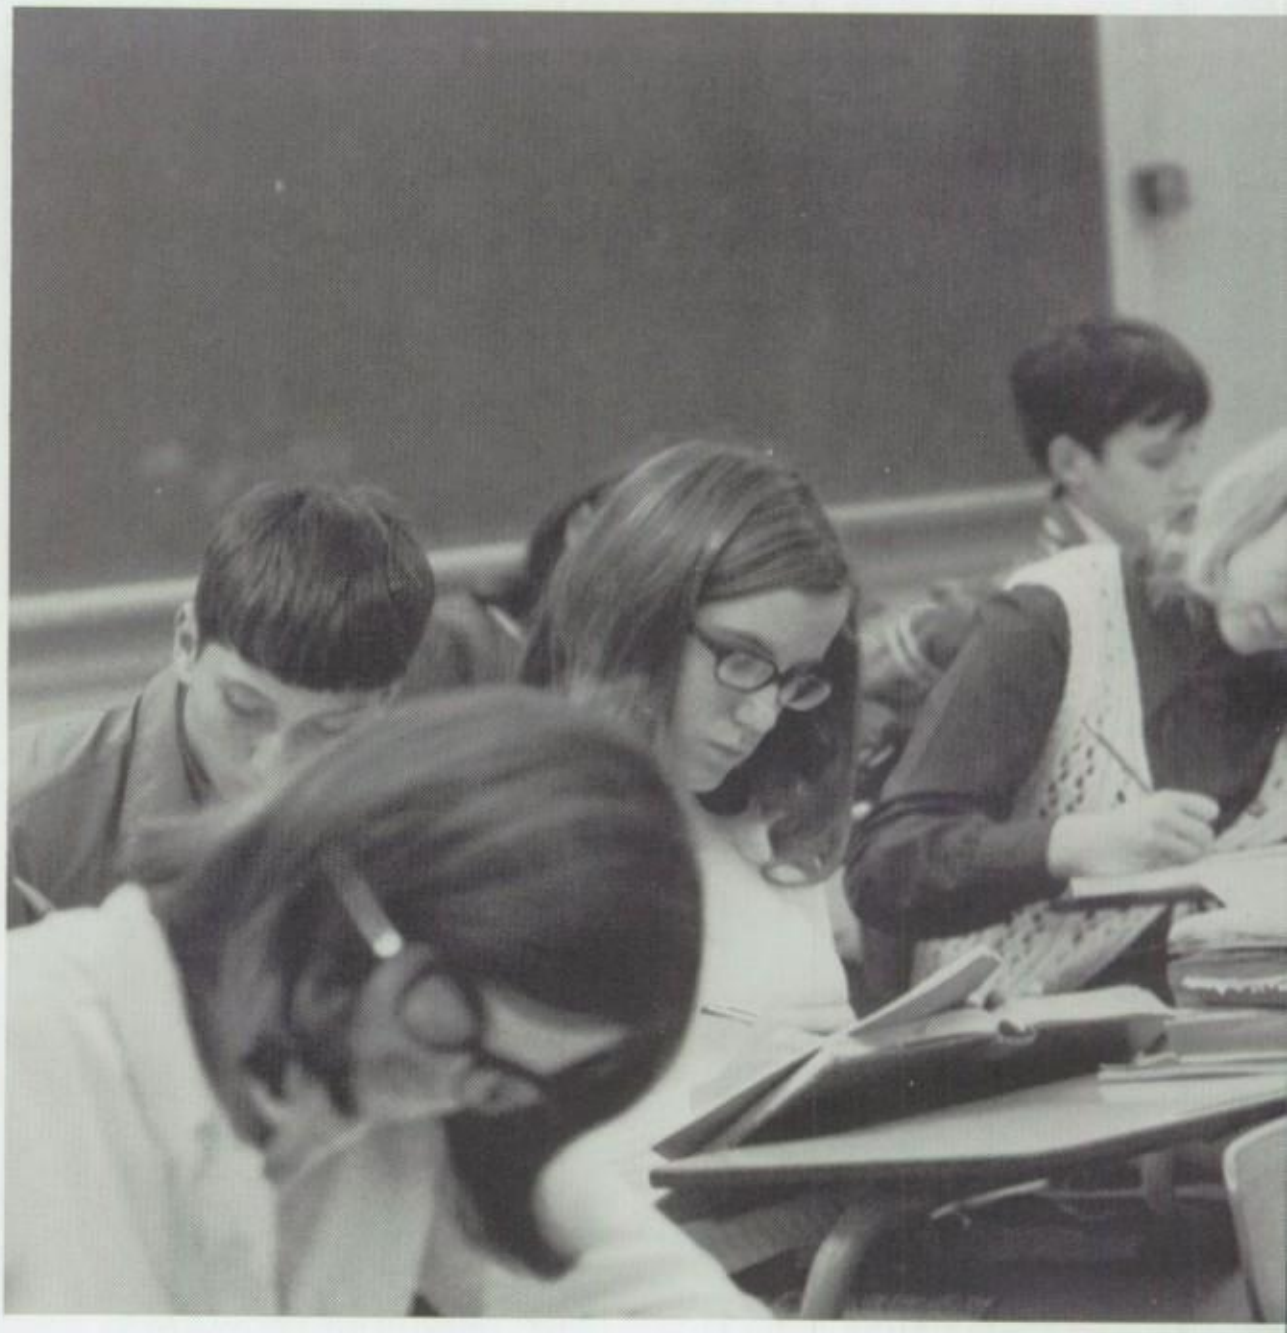
Grammar, Literature, and Speech Are Taught in the English Department

Students in English classes broadened their educational horizons with a study of grammatical techniques. Writing creative compositions, term papers, and book reports aided students in utilizing their knowledge of English to express their thoughts effectively. Literature classes presented an understanding of past eras related to present times. Conversational and formal rules of speaking were learned in speech classes as students gained assurance and poise.



Memorizing lines from famous poems and plays is an assignment most frosh are faced with.

Preparing a book report is a requirement S. Jones must meet in junior literature.

Putting together their speech skills and their proper word usage a junior literature class prepares their own television program "The Mating Game".

Variety was added to the English classes when the students were given the choice of making oral book reports or collages for each six week period.

Cub Staff Provides News of Up-to-date Happenings With Bi-weekly Publication of Student-Oriented Newspaper

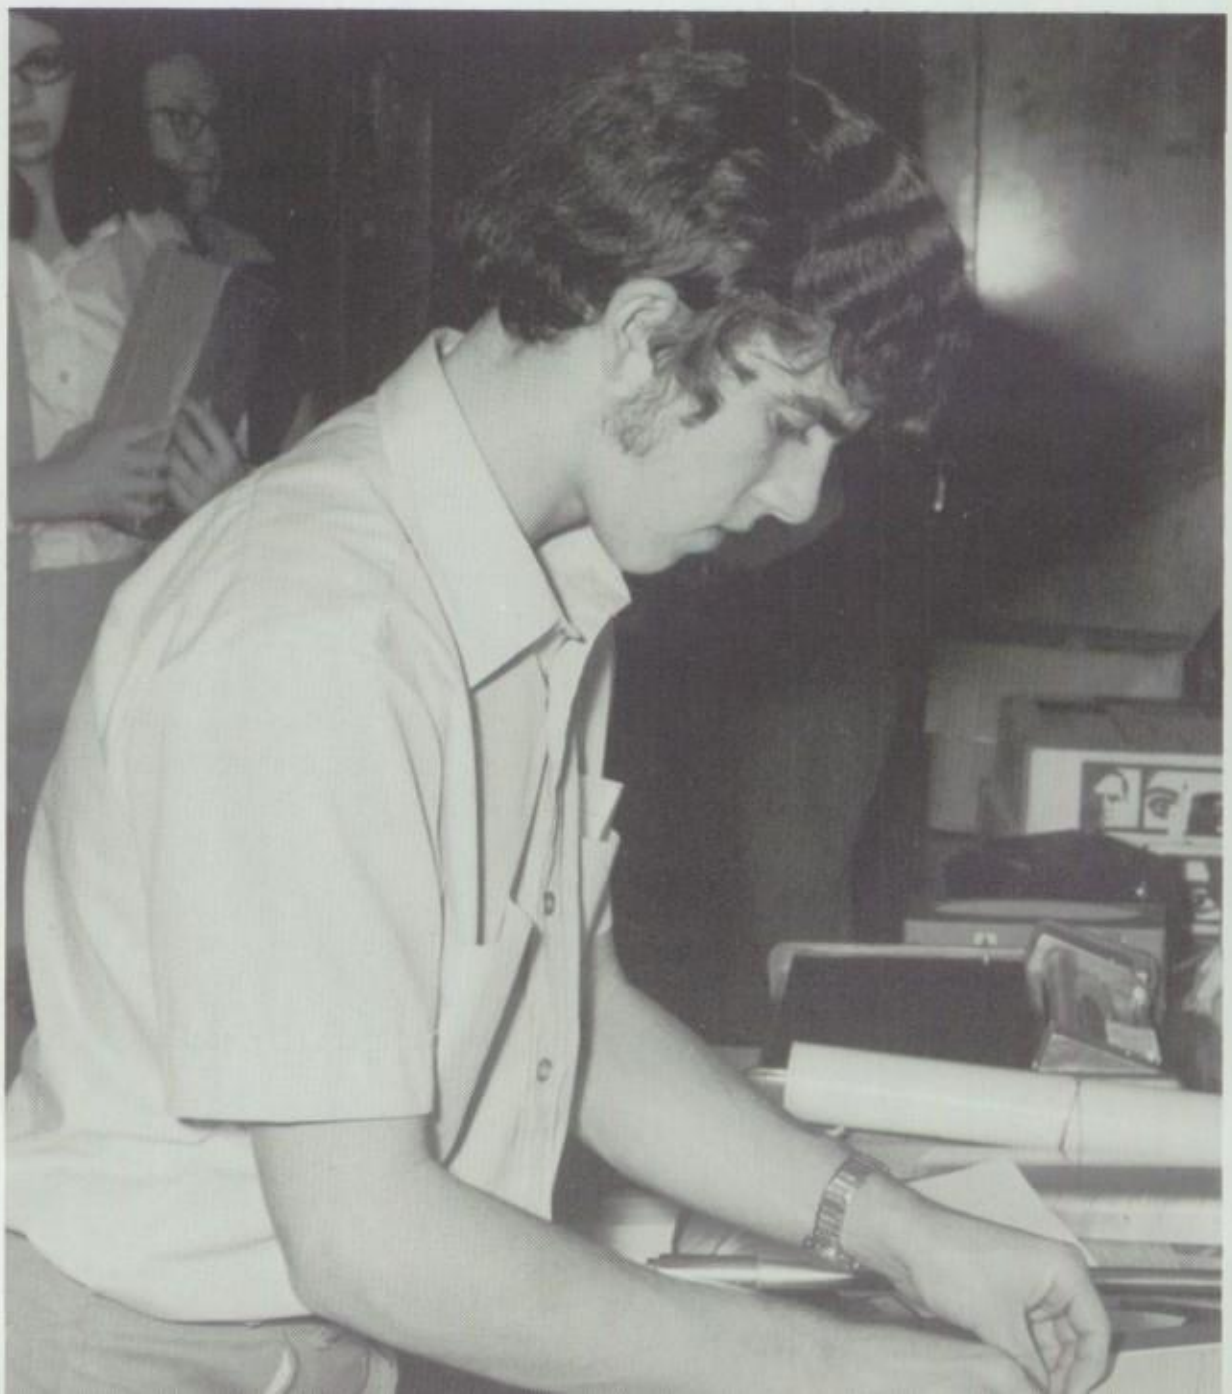
Salem High School's newspaper, the CUB, brought many new and exciting ideas into the 1970-71 school year. With the new decade came a new look for the publication which, for the first time, added the school colors to the headlines.

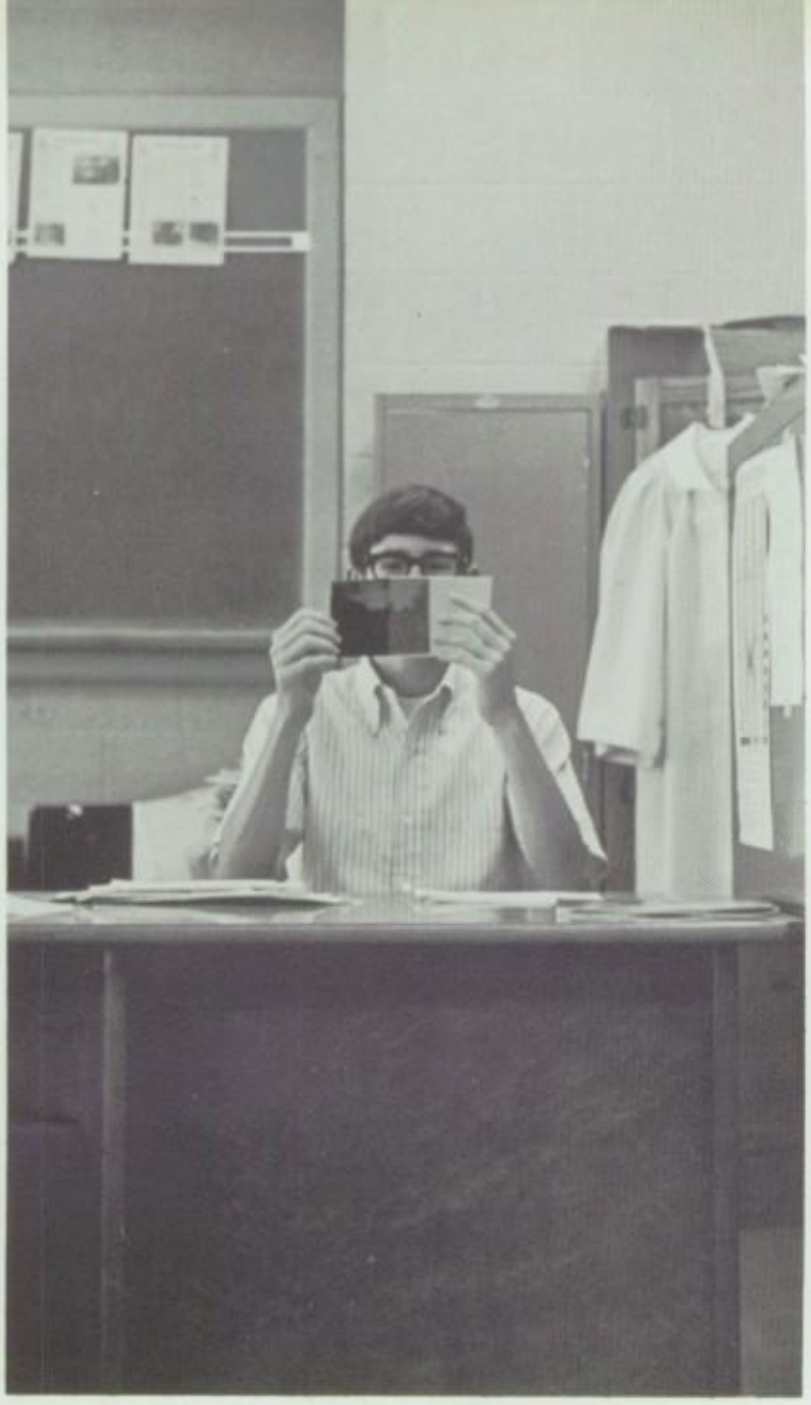
Co-Editors, Lynn Coleman, Westley Fultz, and Jean Ann Trueblood, also gave color to the style in the material presented in the CUB. Mrs. Anderson, advisor spent many long evenings with the staff struggling to meet the paper's bi-weekly deadlines.

Sometimes photographers try a little too hard to get in a position to get a good shot.

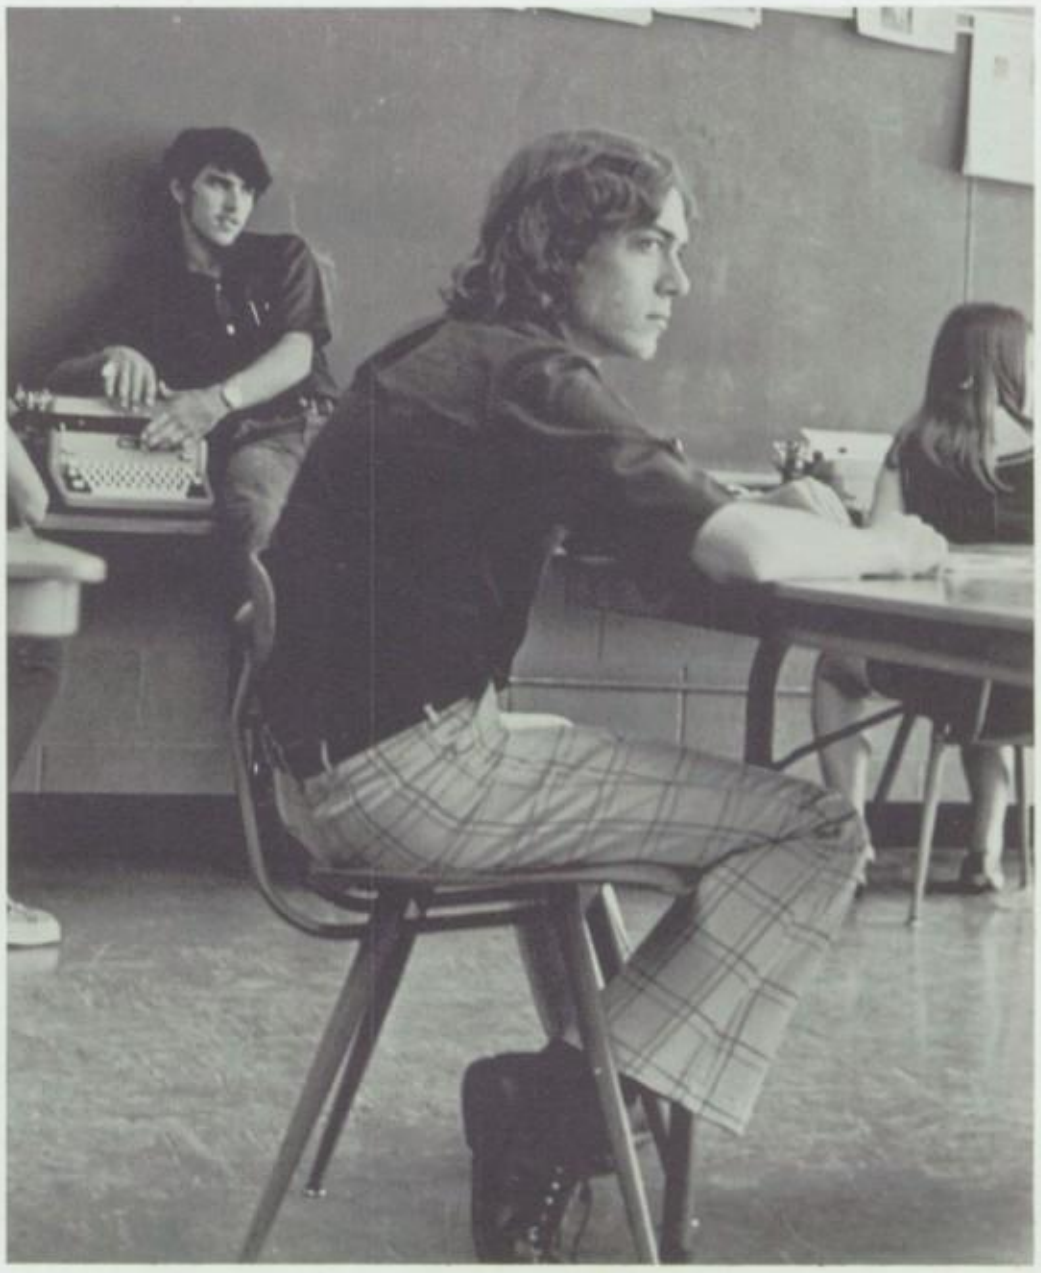
Working the light table co-editor J. A. Trueblood puts together another page of the CUB.

Diligently working to get the Cub out on time, editor Lynn Coleman carefully lays out a page to be sent to press and then distributed to the student body.





Studying a negative Joel Lewis concentrates on how to get the most out of the picture.



Original ideas make up a better paper; therefore, much time was spent in discussion.

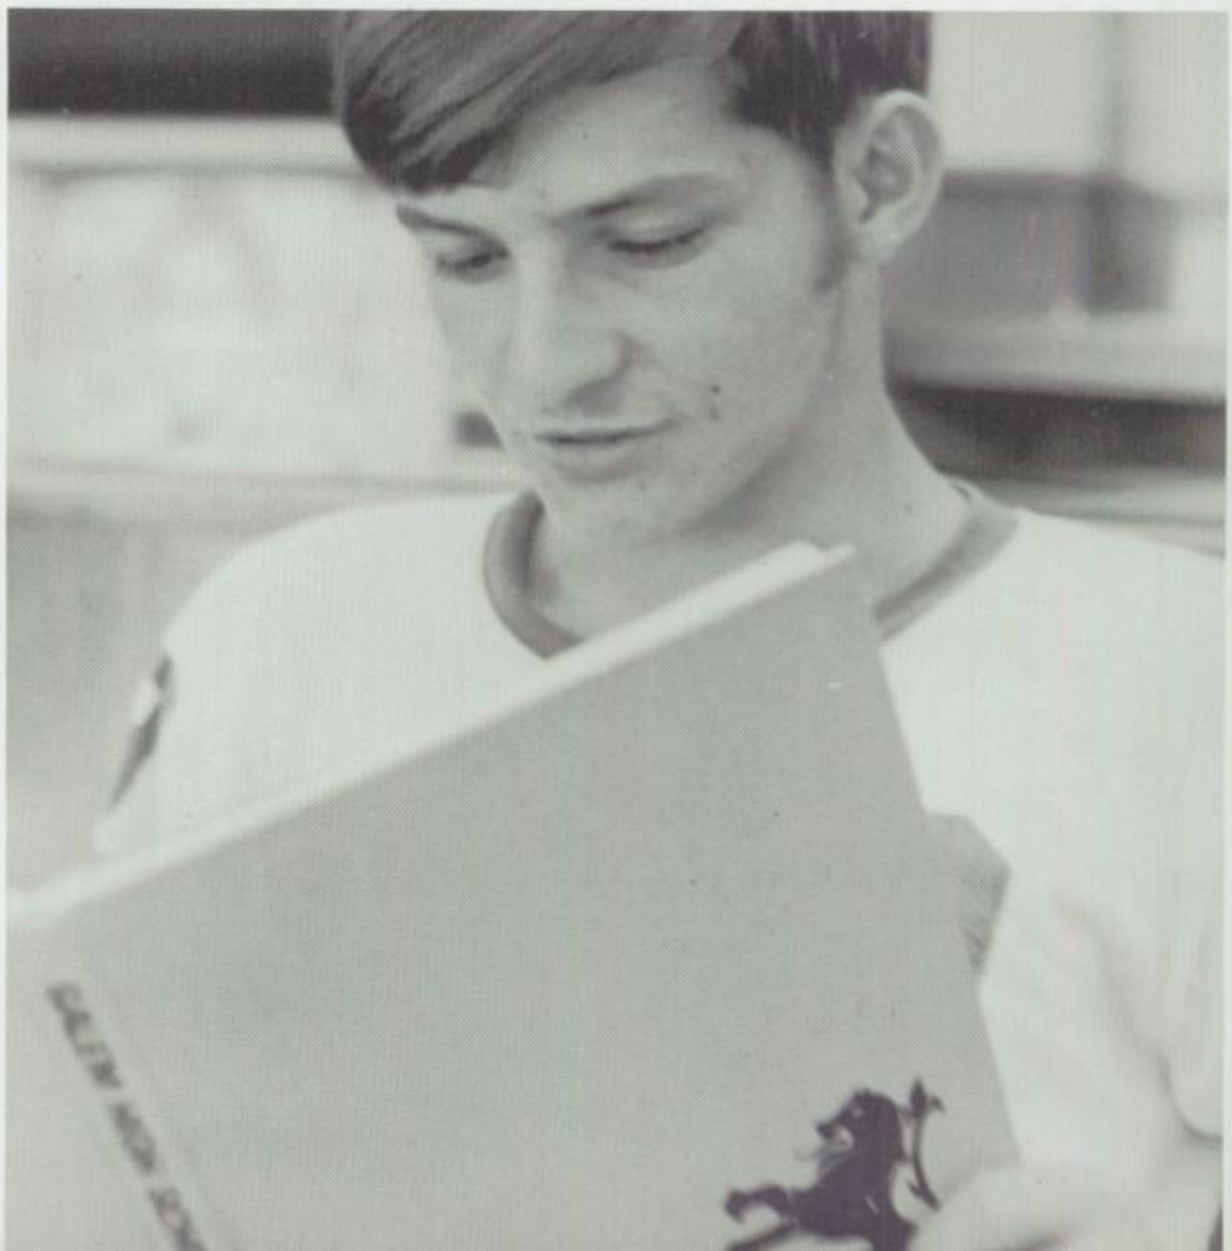
Yearbook Staff Records Progress and Change of SHS in 1971 Lyon

Nine strenuous months was the time set aside to give birth to the SHS yearbook. Presenting the 1971 LYON were editors; Jo Colglazier and Sherry Lyles, sponsor; Bernice Anderson, and a staff of diligent workers. Their ideas blended together in the beginning to set a goal. They aimed their purpose to establish a definite and unique change in the LYON. Their creative hours of toil proved successful as the pages of the 1971 LYON was brought to unity.

Without the advice and patient help of Mrs. Anderson the Lyon would never get published.

Discussing ways to vary layouts and arrange pictures, editors Jo Colglazier and Sherry Lyles hold a council before the final draft is made.

As shown by the interest on Rick Hinton's face, it is obvious the Lyon attracts much attention from SHS students.



Checking all names and scores in the file, Sharron Coombs helps perfect the '71 LYON.

A party added fun to yearbook class and provided an informed, created atmosphere.

Outstanding Student Achievements Are Rewarded on Honor Day

May 24th was set aside as Honor Day to commend and reward those students who had made outstanding achievements during the year. The following awards were presented: Tri Kappa General Award, Art Award, and Memorial Award; D.A.R. Good Citizens and Good Citizenship Awards; Phi Beta Psi Scholarship Award; Beta Sigma Phi Speech and Business Awards; B.P.W. Award; Sterling Silver Homemaking and Betty Crocker Awards; Mathematics Assoc. of America Award; Tri Hi Y Award, Effie Mae Phillips Award, and Memorial Award; Journalism Awards, Thespian Awards; Athletic Awards and ten state scholarships.

Students receiving state scholarships were: C. Hook, M. Blankenbaker, S. Rutherford, B. Apple, D. Smedley, J. A. Trueblood, B. Trueblood, R. Mitchell, J. Hand, and S. Stephenson.

Tri-Hi-Y honors were issued to (top to bottom): B. Norris, D. McCauley, J. Williams, M. Richardson, P. Wall, and V. Land.

Tri Kappa Awards were presented to R. Mitchell, P. Wall, and N. Stephenson.

Recipient of the D. A. R. Good Citizens Award is Valedictorian Janet Hand.

A Change in Administration Brings on New and Different Policies and Changes in Old Ones at SHS in '71

Nineteen seventy-one was a ripe and successful year for administration, teachers, and students. With the installation of a permissive dress code and a "free" lunch hour, SHS knelt to students' wants and thus, sought the road that reaches student individuality.

The formation of this new atmosphere could not have been accomplished without the direction of Principal Max Bedwell and Superintendent Ebert Whipple.

Students come to the office for advice and information of all kinds.

Principal Max Bedwell tapes a special announcement to be read to students.

Serving his last year as superintendent of Salem Community Schools is Mr. Ebert Whipple.

Hard-Working Cook and Custodians Perform Indispensable Duties for Both Students and Teachers at SHS

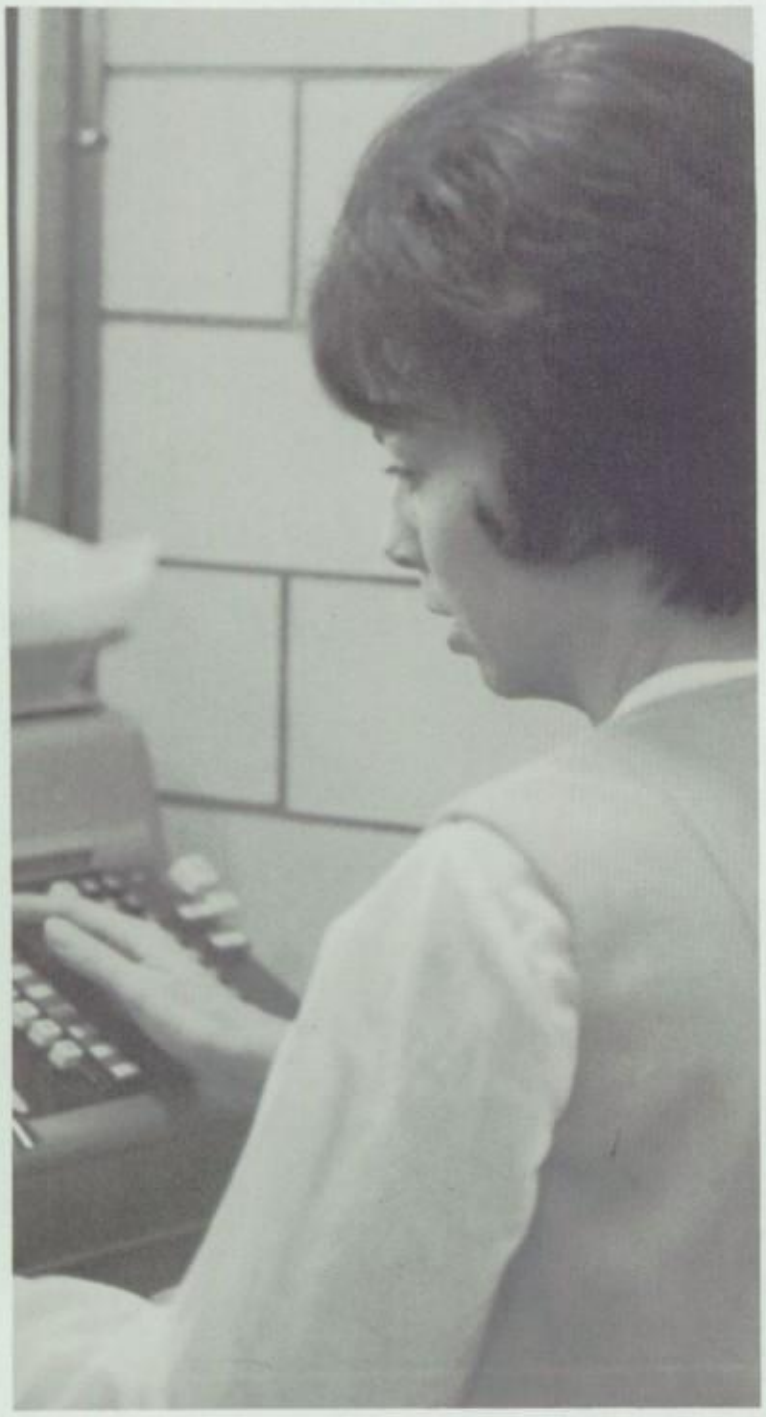
The unheralded cooks and custodians of SHS are owed many thanks for their long hours of hard work. The preparation of well-rounded lunches was the "well-done" duty of our cooks. Along with the regular meal, they served sandwiches and salads for the weight-watchers.

Many un-thought-of jobs were efficiently done by our janitors. The halls and rooms of SHS were cleaned and swept and the yards mowed. Along with their daily duties were added activities, such as setting up the vending machines at ball games.

Washing mounds of dishes is one of the jobs that keeps the cooks so busy.

Quick service and wide variety are just two of the services offered by the cooks.

Removing french fries from the deep fryer is head cook Marie Benson.



Making change is cashier Diane Colwell who cashes in on school lunches daily.

Efficiently serving food to hungry lunchers is a job well done by these SHS cooks.

SHS activities would be immobilized without the help of our hard-working custodians who do the odd jobs no one else thinks of such as setting up the coke machines at ball games.

Student Council District Meeting Highlights Year

Serving as the basic communication link between students and teachers, the Salem Student Council represented one of the most active organizations of the 70-71 year. Three Council members were sent to summer workshops where they discussed basic student and social problems.

The annual Donkey Basketball game was a humorous highlight of the year. The cleaning of the moat showed the Council's determination to improve the appearance of the school. The Rec Room, managed by Student Council, served as a gathering place for students with free time. Ice cream and books were sold to raise money for the two adopted children supported by the Council. In February they hosted a 13-school district meeting.

A discussion of teacher-student relations is part of the district meeting program.

Treasurer P. Ferree builds the Student Council's funds by selling a book to T. Durham.

Selling refreshments during lunch hour adds extra money to the Student Council treasury. Here, C. Coombs is happy to assist customer M. Arnold.

J. Brown, W. Barrow, G. Howell and R. McQuiddy, help Stu. Coun. line the moat with plastic.

Mrs. Barrett stands at attention as President of Student Council, Rick Hinton presents the pledge.

Excitement, enthusiasm, and laughter fills the air as onlookers watch students and faculty fight it out with even odds in the donkey basketball game. Mr. Duncan and two opponents struggle for the possession of the basketball.

Annually the organization holds regional, state, and national competition in various business fields, and this year Joyce Hardin was a regional winner in production typewriting. The OEA used bake sales as a means of making money for various projects, and an alumni group of past OEA members held an annual picnic.

The wheels of G.A.A. began spinning as the members started their 1970-71 activities with a bike excursion. Throughout the year G.A.A. met every Monday afternoon after school. Each member received points for every meeting she attended and any outside activity she participated in. At the end of the year an Annual Awards Banquet was held. At this banquet, awards were presented to the outstanding point earners. Among the plaque, blanket, and letter jacket winners were: B. Newlon; S. Stephenson; J. Toliver; C. Mount; and P. Wall. Usually seniors are the only ones with enough accumulated points to qualify for a big award, but this year L. Cole received a blanket for gaining five-hundred points.

Collecting for the "Heart Fund" Joined the Community With Tri-Hi-Y and Gave Girls a Feeling of Being Needed

A year of hard work and memories of Tri-Hi-Y began with Tri-Hi-Y Week, during which the traditional candlelight initiation was held. The Daddy Daughter Date in November provided girls a night out with their dads and the highlight of the holiday season was the Christmas Ball. Members enjoyed ice-skating with GAA on February 20, and one new important project was collecting for the heart fund.

Spring came, and with it the Mother-Daughter Banquet on April 8. Guests were charmed by speaker Mary Beth Naye, and Bernice Anderson, sponsor of Tri-Hi-Y, was named "Woman of the Year." The end of a great year came with the Tri-Hi-Y slumber party on May 7 in the gym.

A "Watermelon Feed" added to the Homecoming festivities and to the Tri-Hi-Y treasury.

To get the most out of each day is the goal of the 1971 Woman-of-the-Year, Mrs. Anderson.

Mary Beth Naye speaks about inner-beauty at the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet.

Plays, a Dinner Theater, and a Trip to Bloomington Make Up the Year of the 1970-71 Dramatics Club

With the help of Richard Trueblood and Bernice Anderson, the members planned their "acting atmosphere" with long rehearsals, effective make-up techniques, and creative props and costumes.

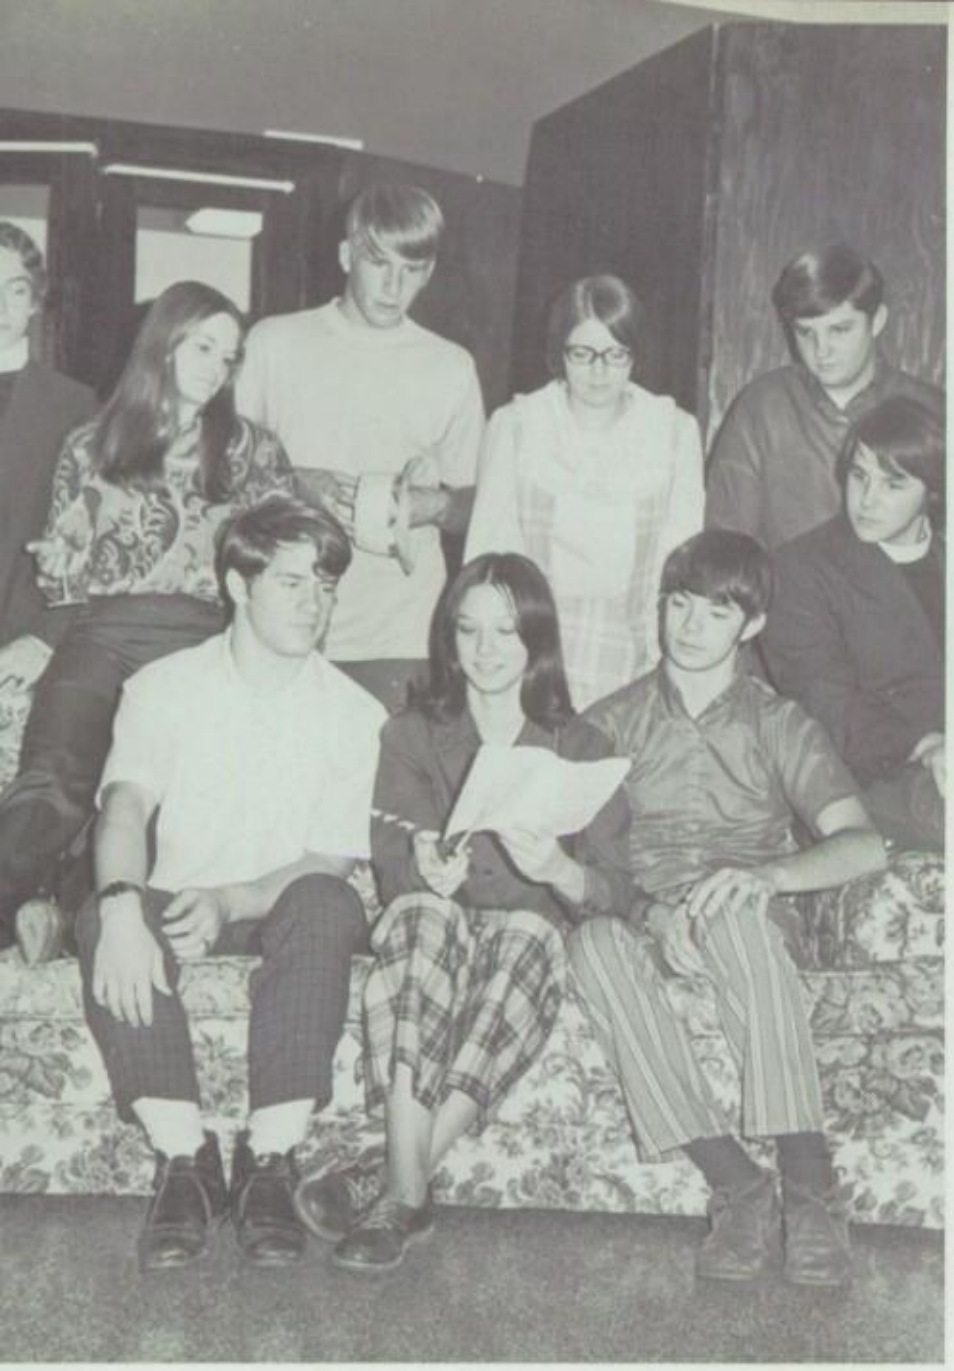
Through their efforts they provided a dinner theater which highlighted the play, See How They Run. In May, The Boor and Chamber Music exemplified the Shakespearean style of theater-in-the-round.

Members were also given the opportunity to observe other, more accomplished actors and actresses by viewing the plays, "1776," and "Dracula" at Actors Theater in Louisville.

"The Boar" turned out not to be boring at all as actors relaxed and turned the night into one of many impromptu and surprising happenings.

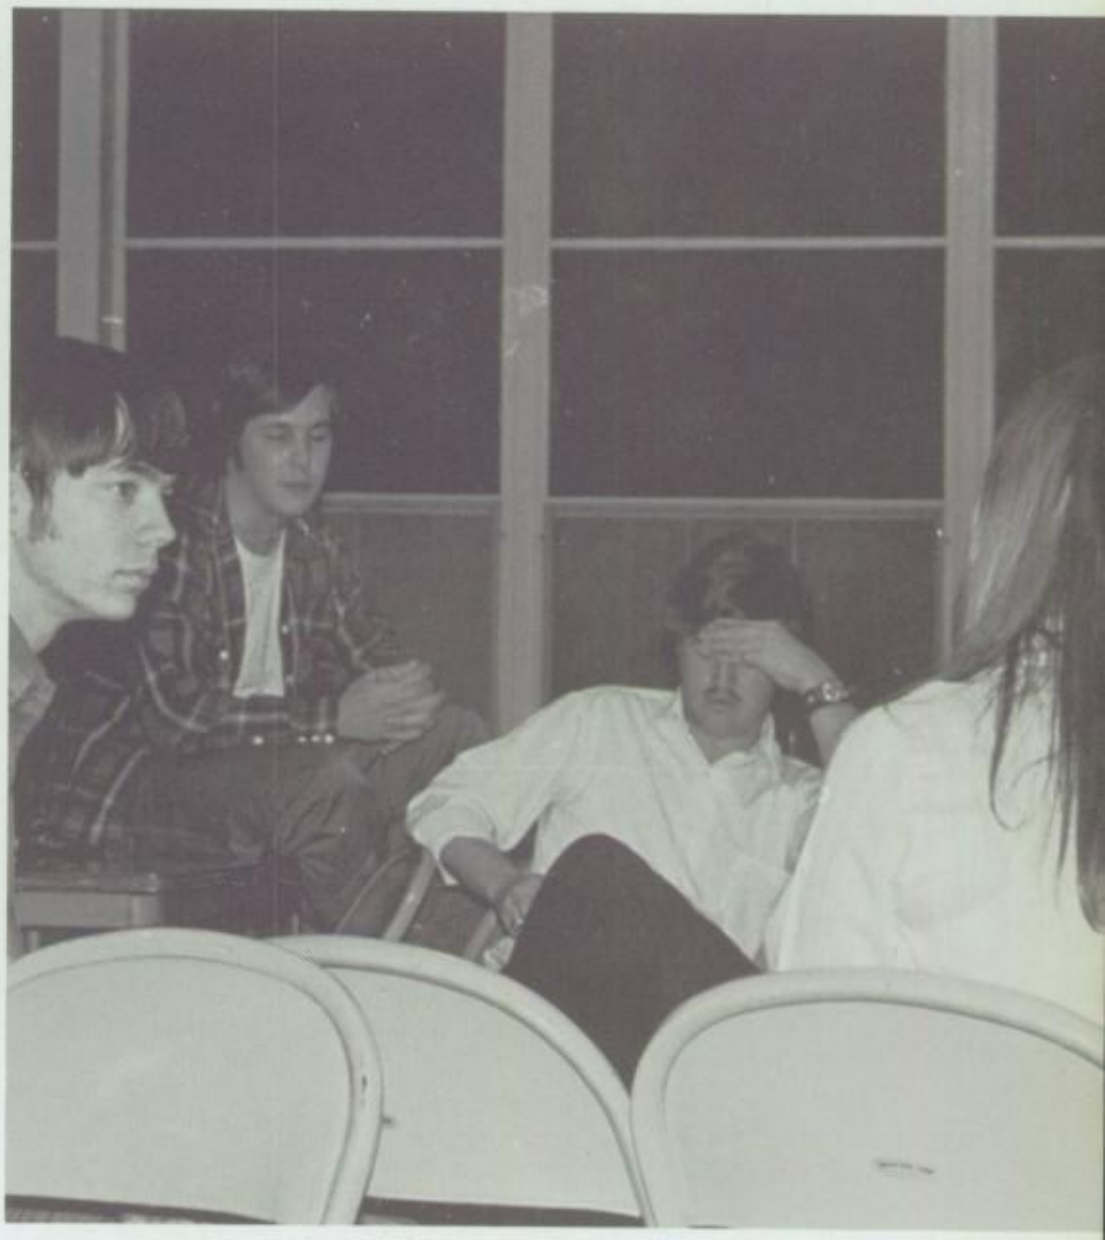
Applying make-up to get just the right look proves difficult for Mr. Trueblood and M. Hughes.

Hours of rehearsals lead to a very successful night as the audience is held spell-bound.



Cast members find that much time must be spent just reading lines to get the right effect.

Hours of rehearsal produces fine performances from our dramatics department.



Caught in a dramatic moment cast members prove that many hours of rehearsals are necessary. One act plays were favored because of their variety and the size of the cast.

Speaker Bill Gladden held the attention of men and boys at the Father-Son Banquet.

Receiving an award for good service is President of Hi-Y, N. Stephenson.

The activities of Hi-Y during the 1970-71 school year centered on the theme of helping those in the community. Members helped out the local March of Dimes Committee by selling tickets to their annual benefit chili supper. A special "Go to Church" Sunday was conducted by the group with members meeting and going to the First Christian Church as a group. This was followed by a "Town-Clean-Up" with members picking up litter throughout the community. A benefit basketball game was conducted to raise money for the three Christmas baskets given to needy families. The annual Father and Son Banquet ended a fine Hi-Y year.

The FHA is an organization of girls in home economics working together to help improve personal, family, and community living. This year the Salem chapter sponsored by Mrs. Fultz and Mrs. Spradley, undertook many projects to help their community. One of the projects was a Halloween and Christmas party for the Children at the Lee J. Fultz School. They also held many bake sales throughout the year.

The biggest event of the year was the annual Sweetheart Dance held on February 14. Music at the dance was played by "The Junction". Crowned as the 1970-71 Sweetheart Queen was Sherri Schneck.

Spirited Cheerblock Boosts Mighty Lions All the Way to "Sweet 16"

Unrolling their spirit sign, Cheerblock gets ready for another game.

Throughout the past year Cheerblock has had a lot to cheer about. With the fine showing of last year's football team and the regional winning basketball team, the cheerblock was kept howling. With the help of returning sponsor, Mr. Scifres, the Cheerblock helped boost the spirit of SHS at all the games here and away. Among other things, the girls in Cheerblock made their own capes, and their Homecoming float received first place. The organization was well represented by Homecoming queen candidate Denise Brown.

Complimented by many as the best looking Cheerblock of the sectional, the '71 Cheerblock coupled great support with a great team to produce enthusiasm which had long been missing at SHS.

Spirit gets a boost as well as J. Plump as fans display hats sold by the Cheerblock.

Choir Sends Out Notes of Joy

Beginning bright and early each morning, choir members started out their day with a song. 1970-71 was a year of rebuilding for the SHS choir, under the direction of Mrs. Baker. In spite of a shortage of boys and divided rehearsal time, choir members worked hard to better their performances.

This year the choir was split into a mixed choir and a girls choir. Baker's Dozen provided entertainment at many social functions, and the Girls Ensemble attended contest at Clarksville on January 30.

The highlights of the year were the Christmas Concert in December and the Spring Concert in May.

Accompanying the choir at many concerts has been pianist, Janet Hand.

Throughout the year Baker's Dozen has provided musical entertainment on several occasions.

A twenty-second place in the Indiana state fair marching contest and a first division in the state marching contest, Group 1, highlighted the 1970-71 school year for the band. In addition to entertaining fans at football and basketball games, the band under the direction of Jerry Vogal hosted a band from Rensselaer, Indiana, performed at an Indiana Pacer basketball game at Indianapolis, gave a concert at county school Pekin Eastern, and received a second place rating in the second division at the playing contest at Clarksville.

Officers for the band this year were Jim Plump; president; Robin Smedley; vice president, and Linda Nicholson; Secretary-Treasurer.

SHS Majorettes Exhibit Twirling Talents at Pacer Game

Entertaining both young and old during the halftime of home basketball and football games were the 1971 Majorettes. Of the fourteen girls there were four seniors, four juniors, and six sophomores. Their hours of practice showed up during the performances. Each routine contained its own special form. Grace, coordination and poise linked these girls as a unified group. Their most spectacular routine was during the football season with the fire batons. Against the dark of night they lighted the football field with miraculous color. Throughout the year each girl contributed her part to the 1971 Majorettes. The highpoint of the year for the Majorettes was appearing at the Pacer's game.

Exhibiting their precision actions the majorettes perform a flag routine for the Pacers.

Summer Cheerleading Camp at Vincennes University Instructs SHS Cheerleaders in the Creation of Spirit

Spirit and pep were the traits of one of the most energetic groups of the school year—the hard-working SHS cheerleaders.

Cheering the Salem Lions through the Holiday Tourney, Sectional, and Regional Championships, and on to Semi-State were the 1970-71 Varsity cheerleaders. The squad attended the Vincennes Workshop, where they received four blue ribbons and the third place trophy.

Two other fine squads were the Junior Varsity and the Freshman. The JV also attended the workshop, where they were considered an outstanding group.

The "caterpillar walk" is just one of the novelties used at pep sessions to boost spirit.

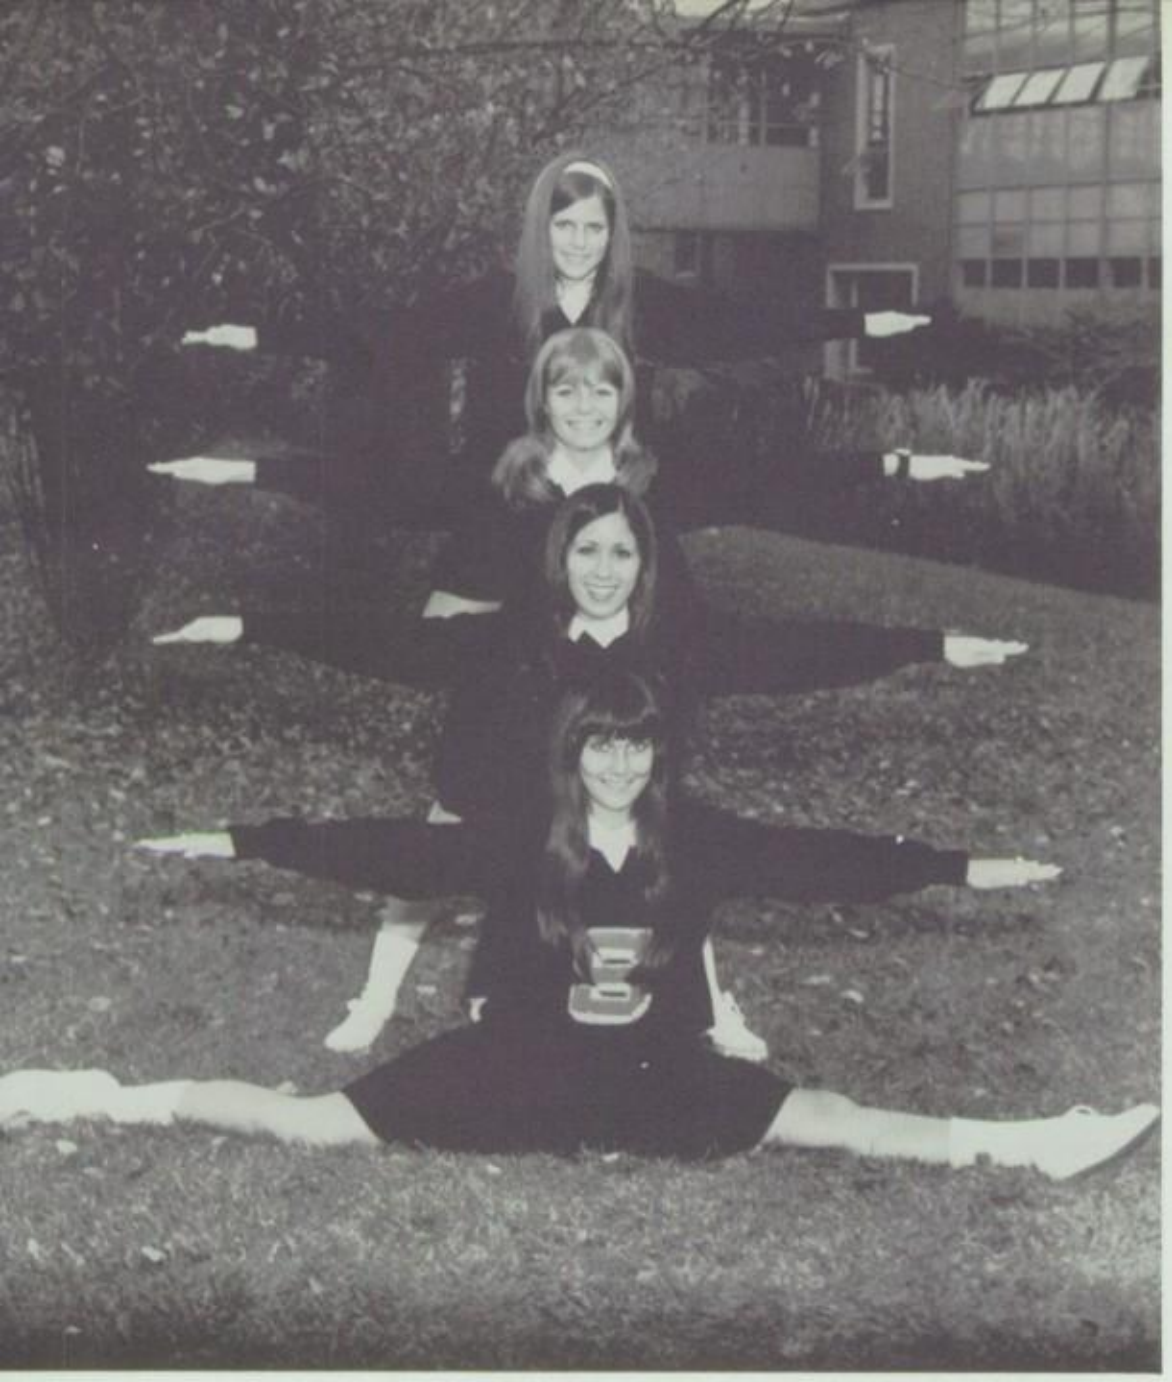
Victory is the desire behind the enthusiasm shown by G. Lawson as she leads another chant.



Junior Varsity Cheerleaders B. Brough, C. Johnson, D. Cathcart, and C. Brough led underclassmen throughout the year in competition.

Leading the community at the semi-state rally was a new experience for the SHS cheerleaders. With the help and cooperation of everyone there the "Mighty Lions" left for Evansville at the peak of Salem's spirit.

Spirit, Sportsmanship, and Skill— Elements of SHS Cheerleaders

Getting to the top of the action the varsity cheerleaders liven up the Semi-State rally.

Cheerleaders heading the freshman Lions with smiles and exhuberance are Terri Williams, Dawn Gasaway, Sherry Gasaway, and Cathie Hunt. This spirited quartet proudly represented SHS.

Varsity cheerleader Sue Brough intently observes the steady pace of the mighty Lions.

The "Breakfast of Champions" served by the cheerleaders topped off a great season.

Guest speaker at the All Sports Banquet, Oscar Hughes works at getting his point across.

The 1970-71 school year has given to the community its most successful year in sports. In return the community has honored SHS, its teams and coaches in many ways.

A full color picture of the '71 Sectional and Regional Champs was presented to the school by Farmer-Citizens Bank. Refreshments for the team during the games and a dinner after the season was furnished by Oscar Hughes. The Booster Club and other organizations and individuals honored the Golf Regional Champs as well as the basketball team with dinners, trophies, and other awards.

SHS is proud to have so much community backing. We thank all people who helped to make this year one of the greatest.

Salem Varsity Football Lions Have Most Outstanding Season Since '62

A Madison Cub brings the Salem man down, and stops the play.

The year 1970 saw Salem finish its best football season since 1962. Completing the year with a 7-2-1 record, the Lions finished third in the conference. The closeness of the conference was represented by the fact that only a 12 to 12 tie with Paoli kept the Lions from gaining a share of the conference title.

Coach Jolly, stated that the 2 games lost and 1 tied could easily have gone the other way. Simply having a bad night was blamed for the homecoming loss to Clarksville. Salem's strong potential showed through in their 26-16 defeat of Floyd Central, the eventual conference co-champion.

Coach Jolly's pride in his team was well-founded with 5 Lions making the all-conference team. Dave Stanley broke all passing records; Ron Mitchell surpassed all receiving records; and Bill House exceeded all scoring records.

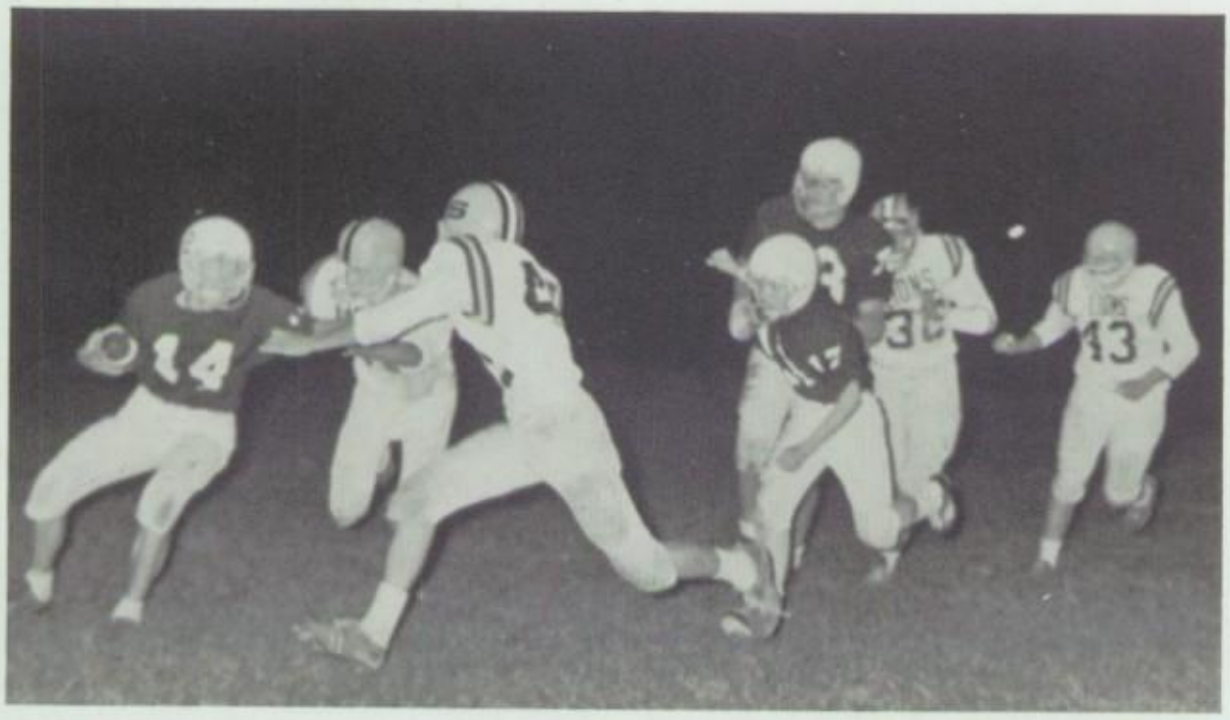
Teamwork is the name of the game as Salem turns on their defensive power.

With the Madison squad running close behind, Salem heads for another touchdown.

Speed and co-ordination are the basics needed as a "Mighty Lion" heads for a touchdown.

Advice and encouragement is often given to the Salem players by Coach Jolly.

Future Varsity Players Gain Experience Playing on Freshman Team



Frosh boys exert an effort to regain possession of the ball and put play back into Lion hands.

The freshman football squad, under the watchful eye of coaches Frank Cole and John D. Fultz, finished off a fine season this year with a winning record of three wins and two losses.

The makings of the Salem Varsity Football Lions begins with a strong young freshmen team. The future looked bright for next year as more boys put out the strain of hours of summer practice than ever before. The boys learned that hard work, sweat, and determination payed off in a winning attitude for the entire school.

A Varsity Lion starts as a freshman, and with the showing of the class of '74 team it can be seen that SHS planned to carry on its winning ways.

Homecoming Spirits Are Dampened As Lions Slip to Second Defeat

Rain may dampen the uniforms but not their spirit as four anxious Lions observe the game.

In spite of traditional Homecoming rains, the spirit of the 1970 Homecoming at Salem High was great. The week began with class competition in hall decorations. The Juniors took first place with their "Tomb of the Defeated". The Homecoming Parade, with floats sponsored by the different clubs was also a success. With the Cheerblock float winning first. At halftime of the Salem-Clarksville game, the queen candidates lined up on the field and the 1970-71 Homecoming Queen, Miss Robin Blevins, was crowned. Even though the fighting Lions suffered a disappointing 46-6 loss to the Generals, the Homecoming Dance, with music by the Mason Bros., added the final touch to a very successful evening.

Endurance, Determination and Skill Characteristics of SHS Young Team

"Young team" was the title given to the '70 Cross Country Team who had only one senior, Lynn Coleman.

Coach Ray Oppel's leading runner for the season was junior Claude "Bones" Wilder. Wilder captured first place in the annual Washington County Cross Country meet held at Eastern this year.

The individual highlight of the year was Wilder's record-setting run of 10:38 at a home meet against Springs Valley. In the rugged Mid-Southern Conference meet "Bones" finished third with Joel Lewis and Mark Nixon running twenty-ninth and thirty-eight.

Coach Oppel praised his runners for the determination they showed throughout the season.

Proud and Victorious SHS Lions Bring It All Home As the Reigning 1971 Sectional and Regional Champs

"Lions have hair!" was shouted by Lion fans as they followed their team through a victorious season. Under the coaching staff of Gary Duncan and Ray Oppel, the Lions blended together super skill and teamwork to escalate to a 20-6 season. Among the honors achieved by the '71 Lions were the Holiday Tourney, Sectional, and the Regional championship titles. This team ignited Salem fans and courageously earned their nickname "The Kardiac Kids."

One of the main assets for the Lions this past season was their well balanced scoring attack. Four of the five starting Lions averaged in double figures for the year. The battle cry "Lions Number 1" was certainly proven.

All eyes are on Larry Purlee as he prepares to pass off to Bill House.

Senior Ron Mitchell drives around opponents to make one of the shots that made him high-point man of the year.

Six-foot-two senior, Gary Martin climbs high for a rebound against the opposing team.

Jumping high S. Spaulding puts one in for Salem against Floyd Central at Semi-State.

"Little Lions" Capture the Title of Holiday Tourney Champs for SHS

Receiving experience and tough competition the Junior Varsity Basketball team put together a season record of 8-12. The "Little Lions" overcame their nickname by bringing to SHS a Holiday Tourney victory.

Having previously played on the Freshman team the J.V. boys proved their skills against bigger teams. The team proved to be fast and defensive.

Most of the boys are expected to be players on the '72 varsity team.

Larry Roberts bounces the ball off the rim as Eastern players come in for rebound.

Salem's Freshmen Basketball Boys Gain Experience for the Future

Salem's "Little Lions" are on their toes as the ball goes into play.

The 1970-71 freshman basketball team showed a determined enthusiasm this season. With a record of six wins and eight losses, a losing season was posted on the boards, but a winning spirit was not shadowed by defeat. Gaining experience and confidence in themselves were the benefits of the freshmen team.

At half-time of the Corydon-Salem game on January 22, four nervously anxious queen candidates marched onto the gym floor. Senior Teresa Williams was crowned, kissed, and presented one dozen red roses by senior class president Gary Howell as she was named the 1970-71 Basketball Homecoming Queen. Other candidates were Glenda Lawson, junior; Doris Smith, sophomore; and Terri Williams, freshman.

Teresa and her escort Mike Heninger watched the remainder of the game and saw Salem defeated 66-60.

After a hard-played and close scoring game, the Corydon Panthers finally downed the Lions.

Varsity Cindermen Sprint Their Way to an Outstanding Season and 3rd Place in the Conference

Front Row: K. Hedrick, R. Fordyce, M. Nixon, K. Motsinger, L. Roberts, R. Gross, R. Smedley, J. Sandlin, J. B. Thompson, P. Erickson, R. Mosley. Row 2: F. Jackson, B. House, S. Fordyce, C. Wilder, K. Spaulding, D. Pitts, K. Powell, M. Stout, Mr. Calvert, coach.

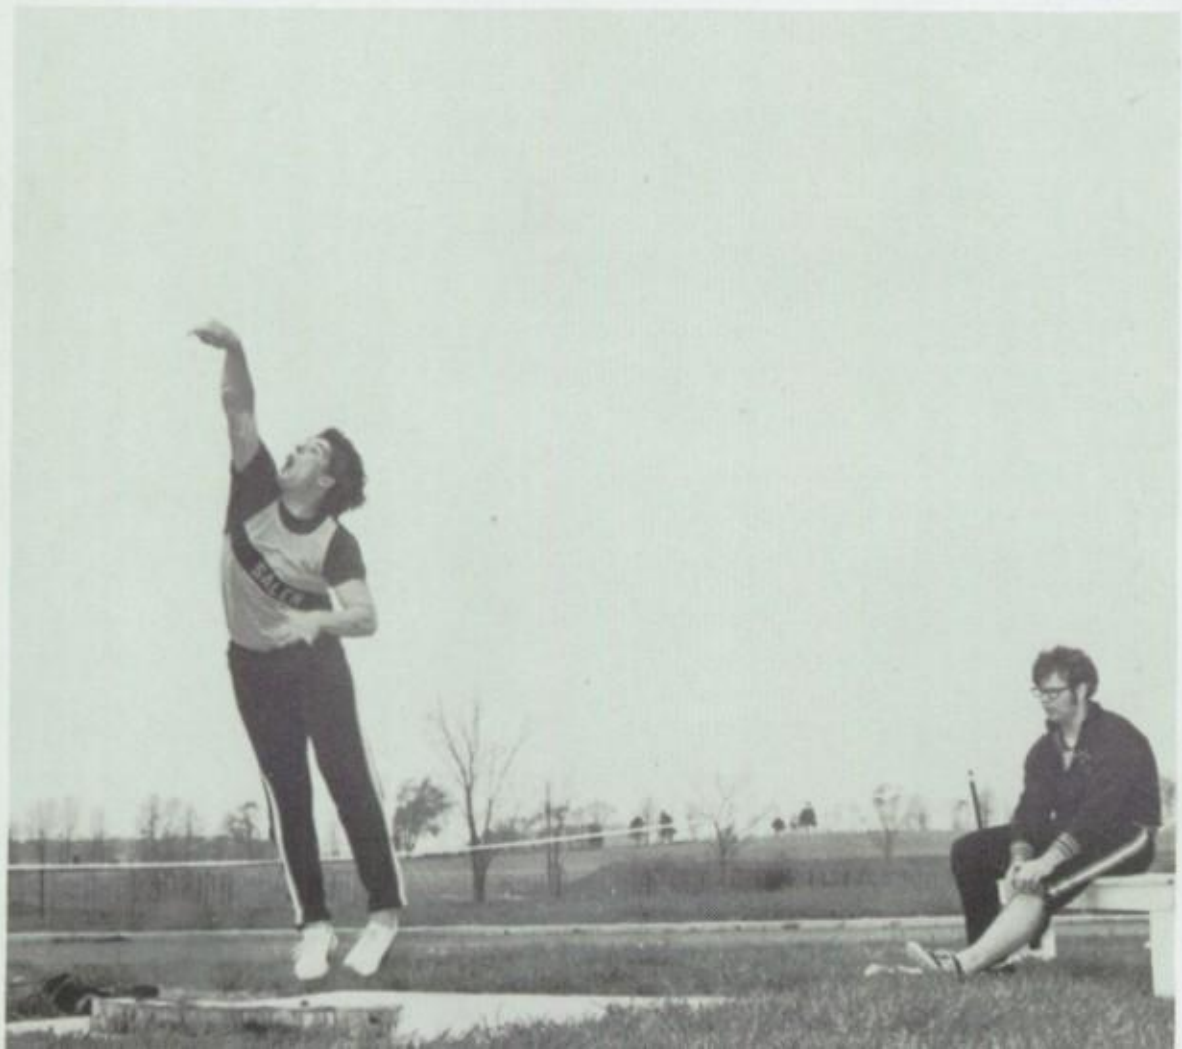
Flying through the air becomes Jeff Brown as he expertly hurdles on toward the finish line.

Congratulations are in order as C. Wilder captures another win for the Lions.

Dean Erickson approaches the wire just a few steps ahead of Orleans competition.

With a last burst of energy, Keith Spurgeon surges through the wire to win another race.

Straining hard for the farthest distance, Mark Stout rates highly in shot put competition.



Winning the county meet and setting two new school records highlighted the '71 Varsity Track teams season.

The 880 yard relay team consisting of B. House, P. Erickson, J. Smith, and K. Spurgeon brought honor to the team when they set a new record for SHS. C. Wilder, one of our most valuable runners, broke the two mile record and came close to breaking many more.

The team received more school spirit than ever before when they placed third in the Mid-Southern Conference.

Frosh Cindermen Show Great Vitality and Determination—Promising Prospects for Future Varsity Tracksters

The "Little Lions" continued to show improvement throughout the season under the persistant guidance of head coach Ray Oppel. Dean Erickson led the freshman track team during the season. Although the boys worked hard they could not overcome the smallness of their team so therefore closed the season with a 10-12 record. The freshman boys, showing their fine form and determination will prove to be good prospects for the '72 varsity track team.

Teamwork is an essential element to win in a relay and Salem Frosh made a good showing.

Front Row; M. Hall, H. Wheeler, D. Rexroat, S. Martin, B. Ackerman, D. Hall. Row 2; Coach Oppel, G. Hoggatt, D. Roberts, D. Erickson, M. Miller, D. Wilder, R. Motsinger.

More Meets. New Uniforms and Regional Competition Make for a Bigger and Better Girls Track Team

With ease and assurance, Sue Brough takes the high hurdle in good form.

Hours of tireless training and continual practice paid off for the newest addition to Salem's athletic organizations, the girls track team.

A strong interest in the development of athletic skill was evident in the large number of girls that went out. In the fall the girls elected officers with Susan Stephenson as president, Leslie Cole as vice-president, Deanna Davis as treasurer, and Debbie Strong as a combination secretary-historian. The girls received new track suits early in May.

The team was beaten only by two teams throughout the year. To finish the year Leslie Cole, Susan Stephenson, Deanna Davis, Debbie Strong, and Lana Humphrey went to state competition.

Jollymen Take Regular Season Undefeated, Conference And Sectional Titles and Place Eighth in State Meet

Finishing up the season with a 92-8-2 record the Jollymen found themselves eighth in the state. Winning the conference with David Brown bringing home medalist honors, winning the sectional, placing second at regional with Jim Pugh bringing home medalist honors and traveling to Indianapolis for the state meet added another record to SHS. The team scored another first when they went through their regular season undefeated.

Capturing medalist honors for the season was senior Gary Martin. Sharing the Eddie Gilstrap Memorial Award were seniors Gary Martin and Jim Pugh.

Under the direction of Coach Jolly the '71 golf team put together the best season record in SHS's history.

Sharing the Eddie Gilstrap Memorial Award are seniors J. Pugh and G. Martin. Martin was also medalist for the season.

Coach Jolly lead the team all the way to State to set a new record for Salem.

Lining up a putt takes concentration and experience before accuracy is obtained.

Front Row; T. Thixton, M. Porter, L. McDonald, S. Miller, R. Doyle. Row Two: J. Pugh, G. Martin, D. Brown, A. Simpson, M. Yarber, R. Simpson, J. Korff, G. Crouch, Coach Jolly.

Simpson shows his form for distance as he drives off number one tee.

Body english may not get the ball in the cup but it eases the tension.

Strong Pitching Isn't Quite Enough for Salem Lions '71 Baseball Team

Up at bat Salem makes another attempt to get that important run to tie the score.

The '71 baseball season proved to be challenging and exciting as the team put forth their greatest effort. With many of the players returning for their third or fourth season the boys used great teamwork to bring in a good record of eight wins and eight losses.

Receiving honors for the season was David Stanley who proved to be one of their most valuable players.

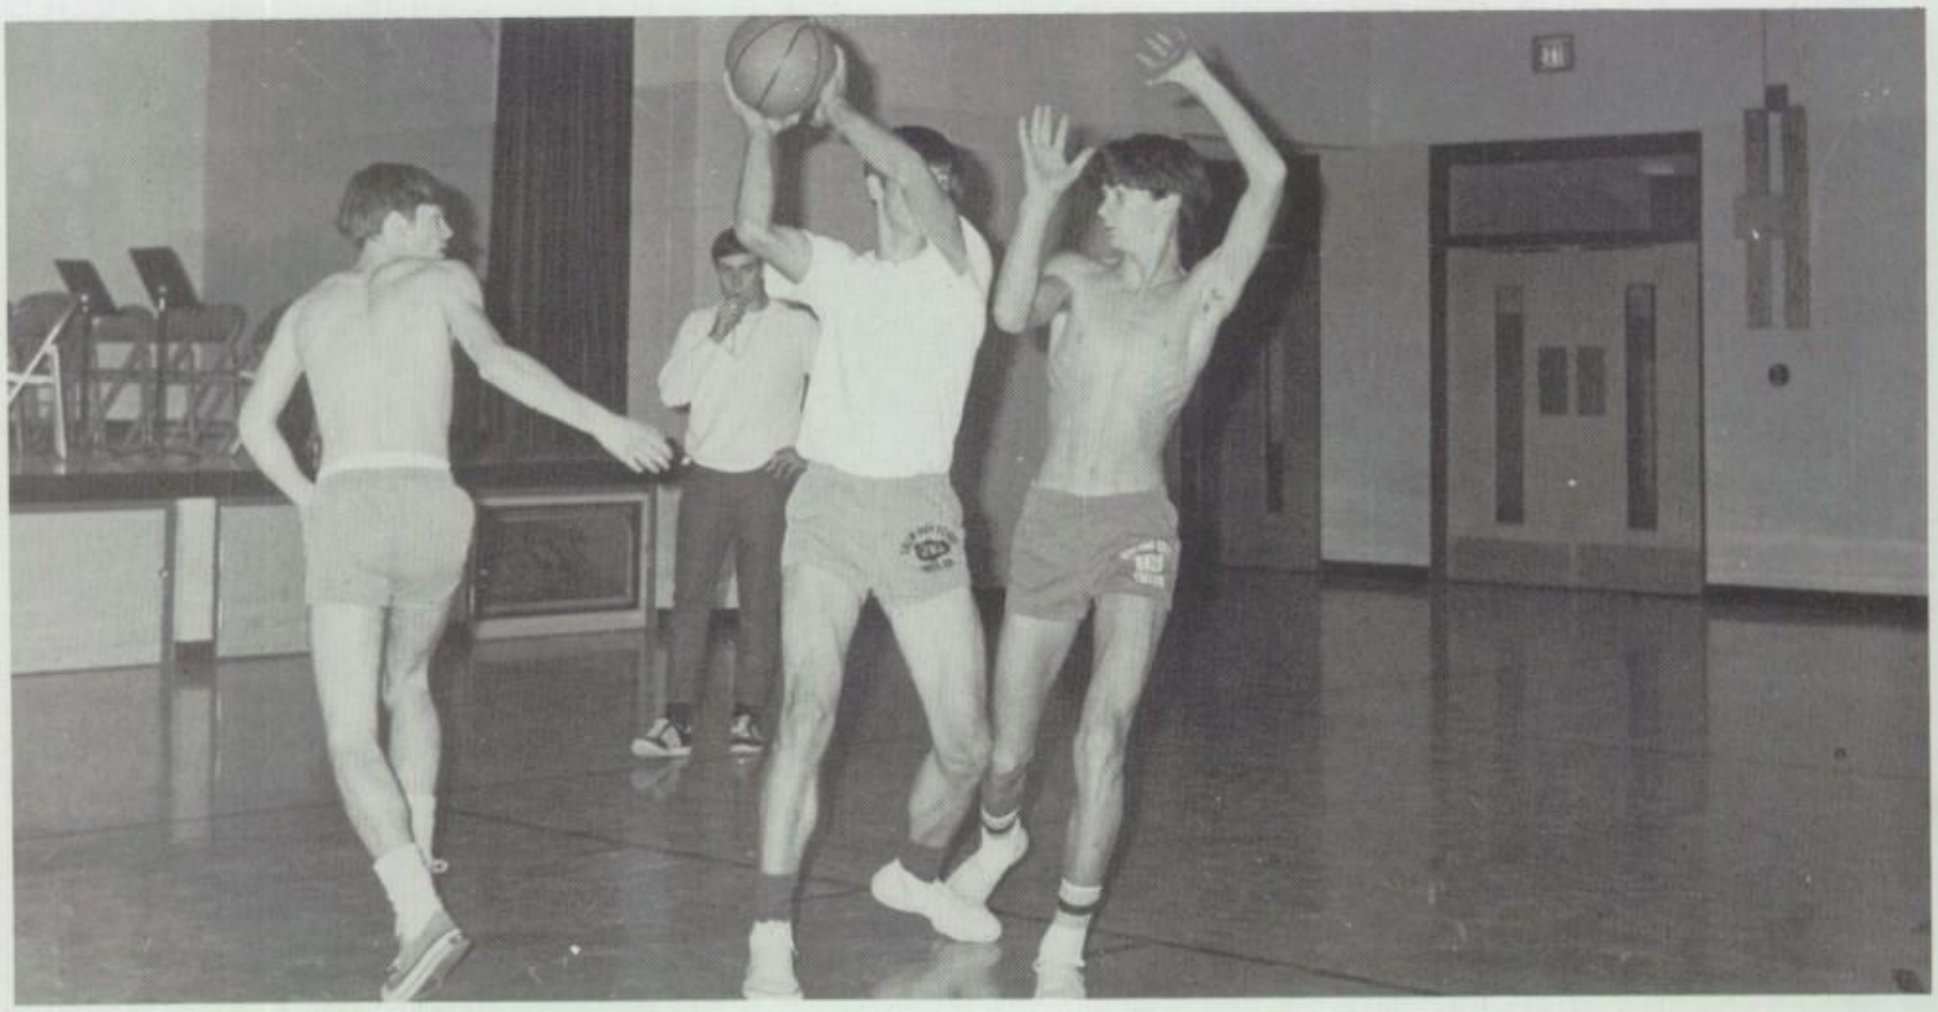
Recognized only as a minor sport at SHS the team suffered from lack of enthusiasm.

Keeping score in a tight game brings a look of anxiety to Coach Fultz's face.

Dave Stanley, Salem's number one pitcher, gives opponent hard time at the plate.

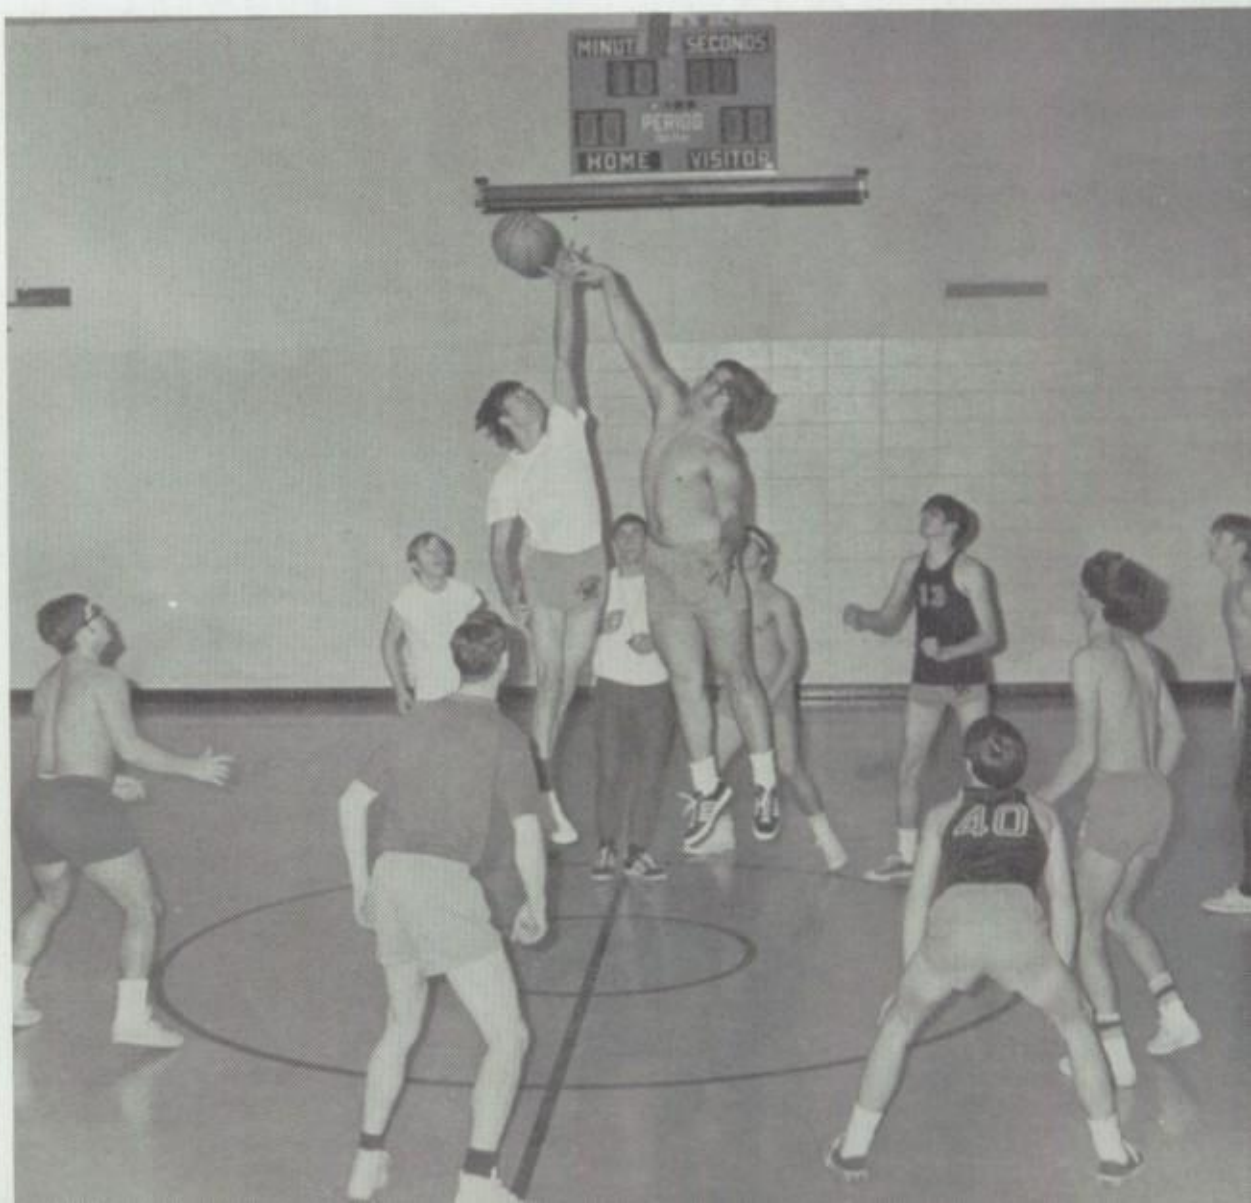
On deck and ready to go, Rick Hinton steps confidently out of the dugout.

Chance for Athletic Participation Extended to Others Via Intramurals



Referree, Dave Stanley blows the whistle on Terry Bundy as he commits a foul on Steve Fordyce who is trying to pass off to teammate Danny Dean.

Mike Blankenbaker and Scott Trueblood scramble in an attempt to gain possession of the ball.



Under the direction of Morris Rosenbaum and Paul Scifres, intramurals enjoyed their finest season yet, as students participated in football and basketball.

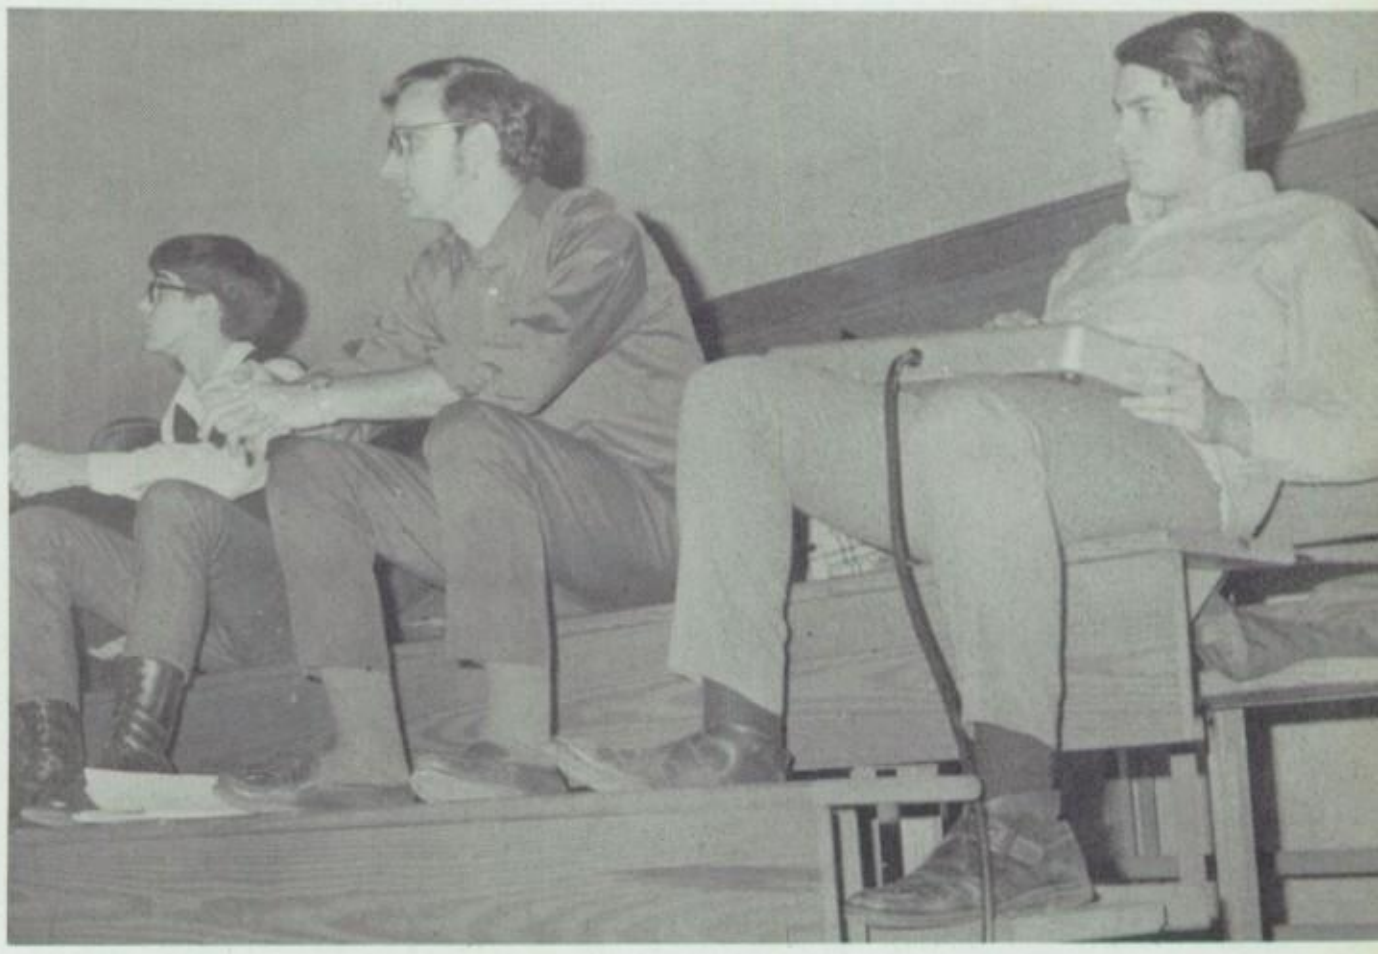
Football intramurals consisted of four teams with ten to twelve players on each team. Boys with previous football experience were selected as captains of the teams. They play during September and October.

Basketball was played November through February. A tournament was held to pick the best team.

Intramurals offered these activities to boys to play in competitive sports who do not play on a Varsity, Junior Varsity or Freshman team.

Guarded closely by Scott Trueblood, Mike Heninger gets away a shot at an intramural game.

With the help of Mr. Scifres, M. Porter and A. Simpson keep scores at an intramural game.



Intramural basketball action proved to be an exciting part of the SHS sports program. Mike Heninger looks for an open teammate while being closely guarded by Rusty Crockett.

Class of 1974 Embarks on SHS

Two-hundred four Freshman invaded the halls of SHS on August 28, 1970, to begin their long journey down the pathway of life and learning. The class of '74 quickly became a part of the activities at SHS. The "greenies" tried to avoid the moat, with a traditional fear of being thrown in by domineering upperclassmen.

The freshman cheerleaders boosted the spirit of their class as the frosh proved their athletic prowess with victorious football and basketball teams. Terri Williams was chosen freshman candidate for Basketball Homecoming Queen.

The freshman participation in organizations and extra-curricular activities made them an essential part of SHS by the end of the year.

Looking for plans for upcoming year are freshman class officers G. Ford, Sec., L. Dickmeyer, Vice Pres., L. Humphery, Tres., and G. Hoggatt, Pres. with sponsors G. Radcliffe and E. Eisert.

It has been said that love knows no time, this certainly is true as freshman B. Ackerman gives S. Gili a sweetheart ring in English class while V. Porter and W. Mahuron look on.

Spirited Sophomores Set Pace for SHS Enthusiasm

Having put one year behind them, the sophomores looked ahead to the future. Their 166 members made them the second largest class in the school. Their academic life ranged from studying lines and planes in geometry to taking on the challenge of reading the Shakesperean tragedy 'Julius Caesar' in literature.

The class of 1973 was well represented in many organizations as they started to feel a part of SHS. The time the JV cheerleaders spent in practice, paid off at tournament time. Their enthusiasm along with the sophomores' spirit boosted the JV to the championship of the JV basketball tourney. They elected Doris Smith as their basketball Homecoming Queen candidate.

Jrs. Escalate to Upperclassmen

In joining the ranks of upperclassmen, the class of '72 began their active junior year by immediately capturing the spirit jug. Winning first place in hall decorations at Homecoming and receiving class rings also boosted junior status. On April 17, juniors took the SAT tests to determine their scholastic ability. Hard work paid off as the energetic juniors earned money handling the concessions at basketball games. Glenda Lawson was named the jr. candidate for the 1971 Basketball Queen. As May drew near, juniors prepared for the traditional highlight of their year—the prom. And at the end of a great year, the class of '72 at last received the long-awaited title of seniors.

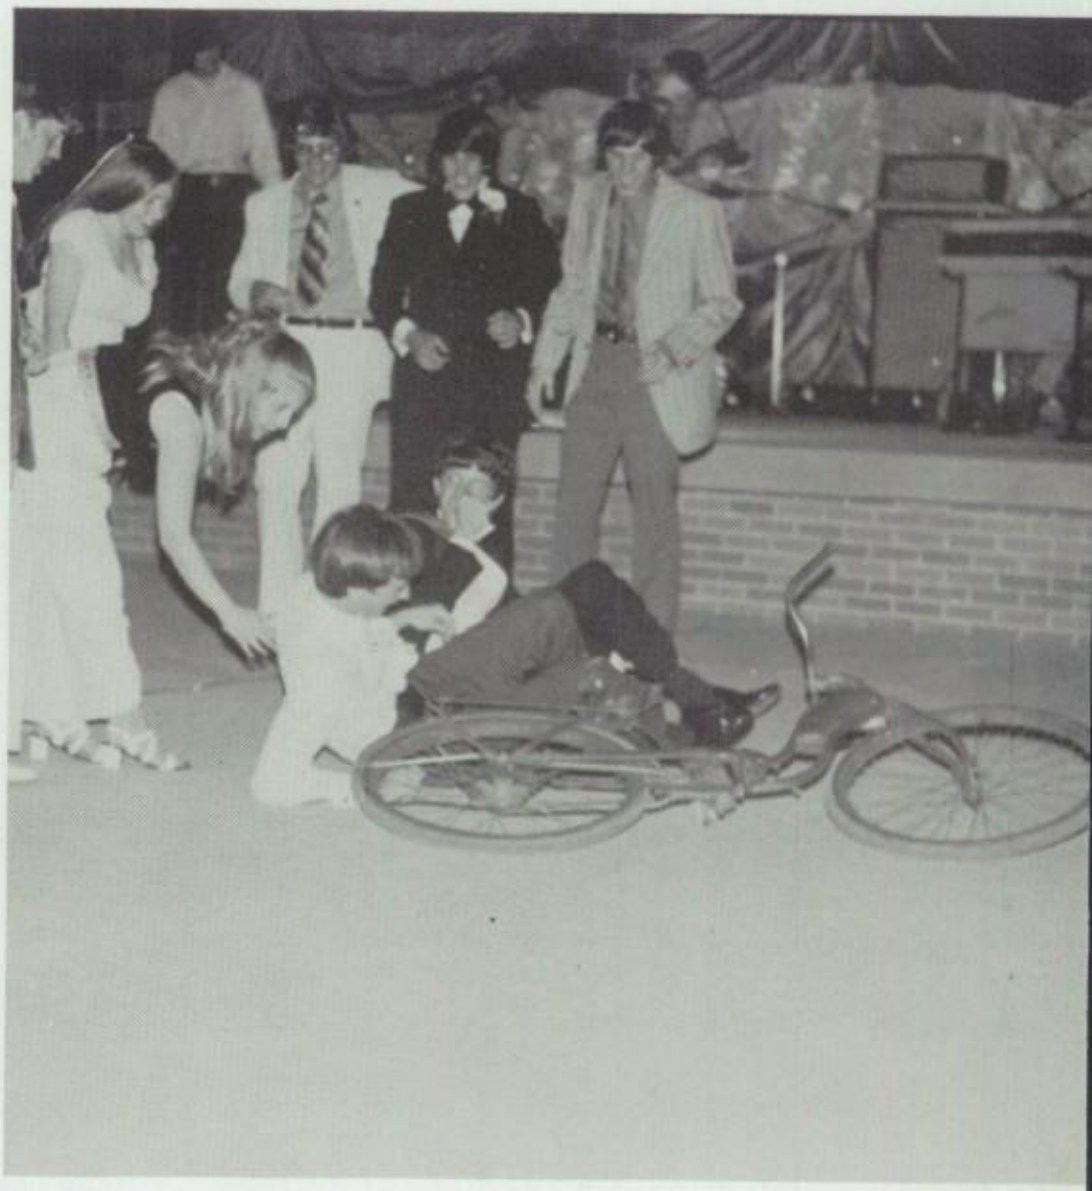
Anticipating the arrival of class rings, K. Powell and M. Packwood complete their orders.

1970-71 Prom Is Enhanced by Moonlight and Stars as the "Song of the Islands" Drifts Through the Air

Prophecies given by K. Spurgeon added to the uniqueness of the 1970-71 Junior-Senior Prom.



Bicycle and boys mixed to add that certain touch to a great evening for everyone.

Hard work on consessions paid off for the Juniors. A half day off to work on the Prom was their reward.

On Saturday, May 15, the Juniors presented their "Song of the Islands" to the Senior Class. For one evening, the beautiful courtyard of Bradie Shrum Elementary School, was transformed into an island. Torches and starlight added to the ecstacy of the evening.

Sounds of "Crushed Velvet" were heard through the courtyard as couples gathered about the fountain and strolled across the bridge.

Larry Purlee and Sue Hobbs were crowned king and queen of the 1971 Prom.

Papier-mache creatively molded and painted by L. Nicholson turned into great stone faces.

Dancing to the music of "Crushed Velvet" couples joined together to make the night complete. Dancing ranged from fast to slow to chains formed by the guests.

Su Hobbs and Larry Purlee received leis and the title of Queen and King of the prom.

A day off from school provided the juniors with the time to make the elementary school courtyard into a paradise.

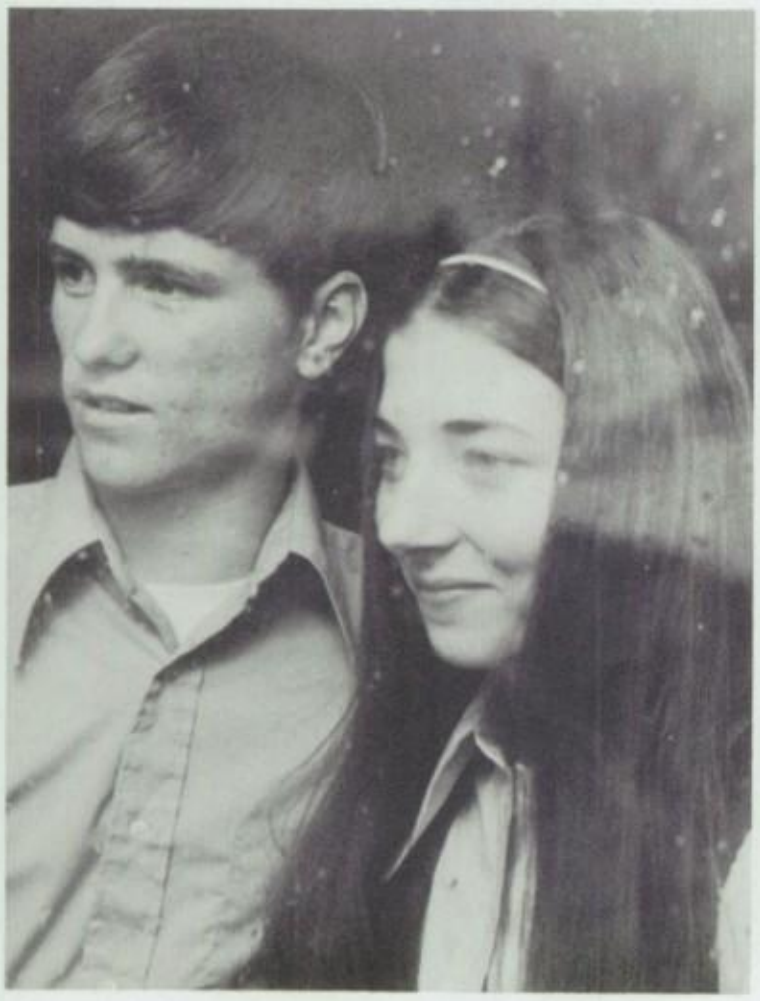
We turn our tassels.



SENIORS

Personalities Change, Develop, Expand—'71 Seniors Take Last Whirl at Expressing Themselves at SHS

The year of the Senior can often be tagged as unforgetable. Ordering announcements and caps and gowns for graduation, thoughts of college, and depression over term papers evolved throughout the year.

R. Mitchell, D. Stanley, and B. House were bestowed the high honor of making the All Conference Team for football and consequently, this reflected proudly on the entire class. With that "winning spirit" ignited, the Sr. Class chose Teresa Williams as their representative at Basketball Homecoming on Jan. 22.

Money projects such as bake sales and the annual Sr. Talent Show on April 22 united the class toward their goal—the great Senior Trip!

Mr. Cole and Mrs. Cox, class sponsors, confer with senior officers Danny Dean, vice pres; Gary Howell, pres.; Belinda Newlon, sec.; and treas., Anna Spaulding about the senior class trip.

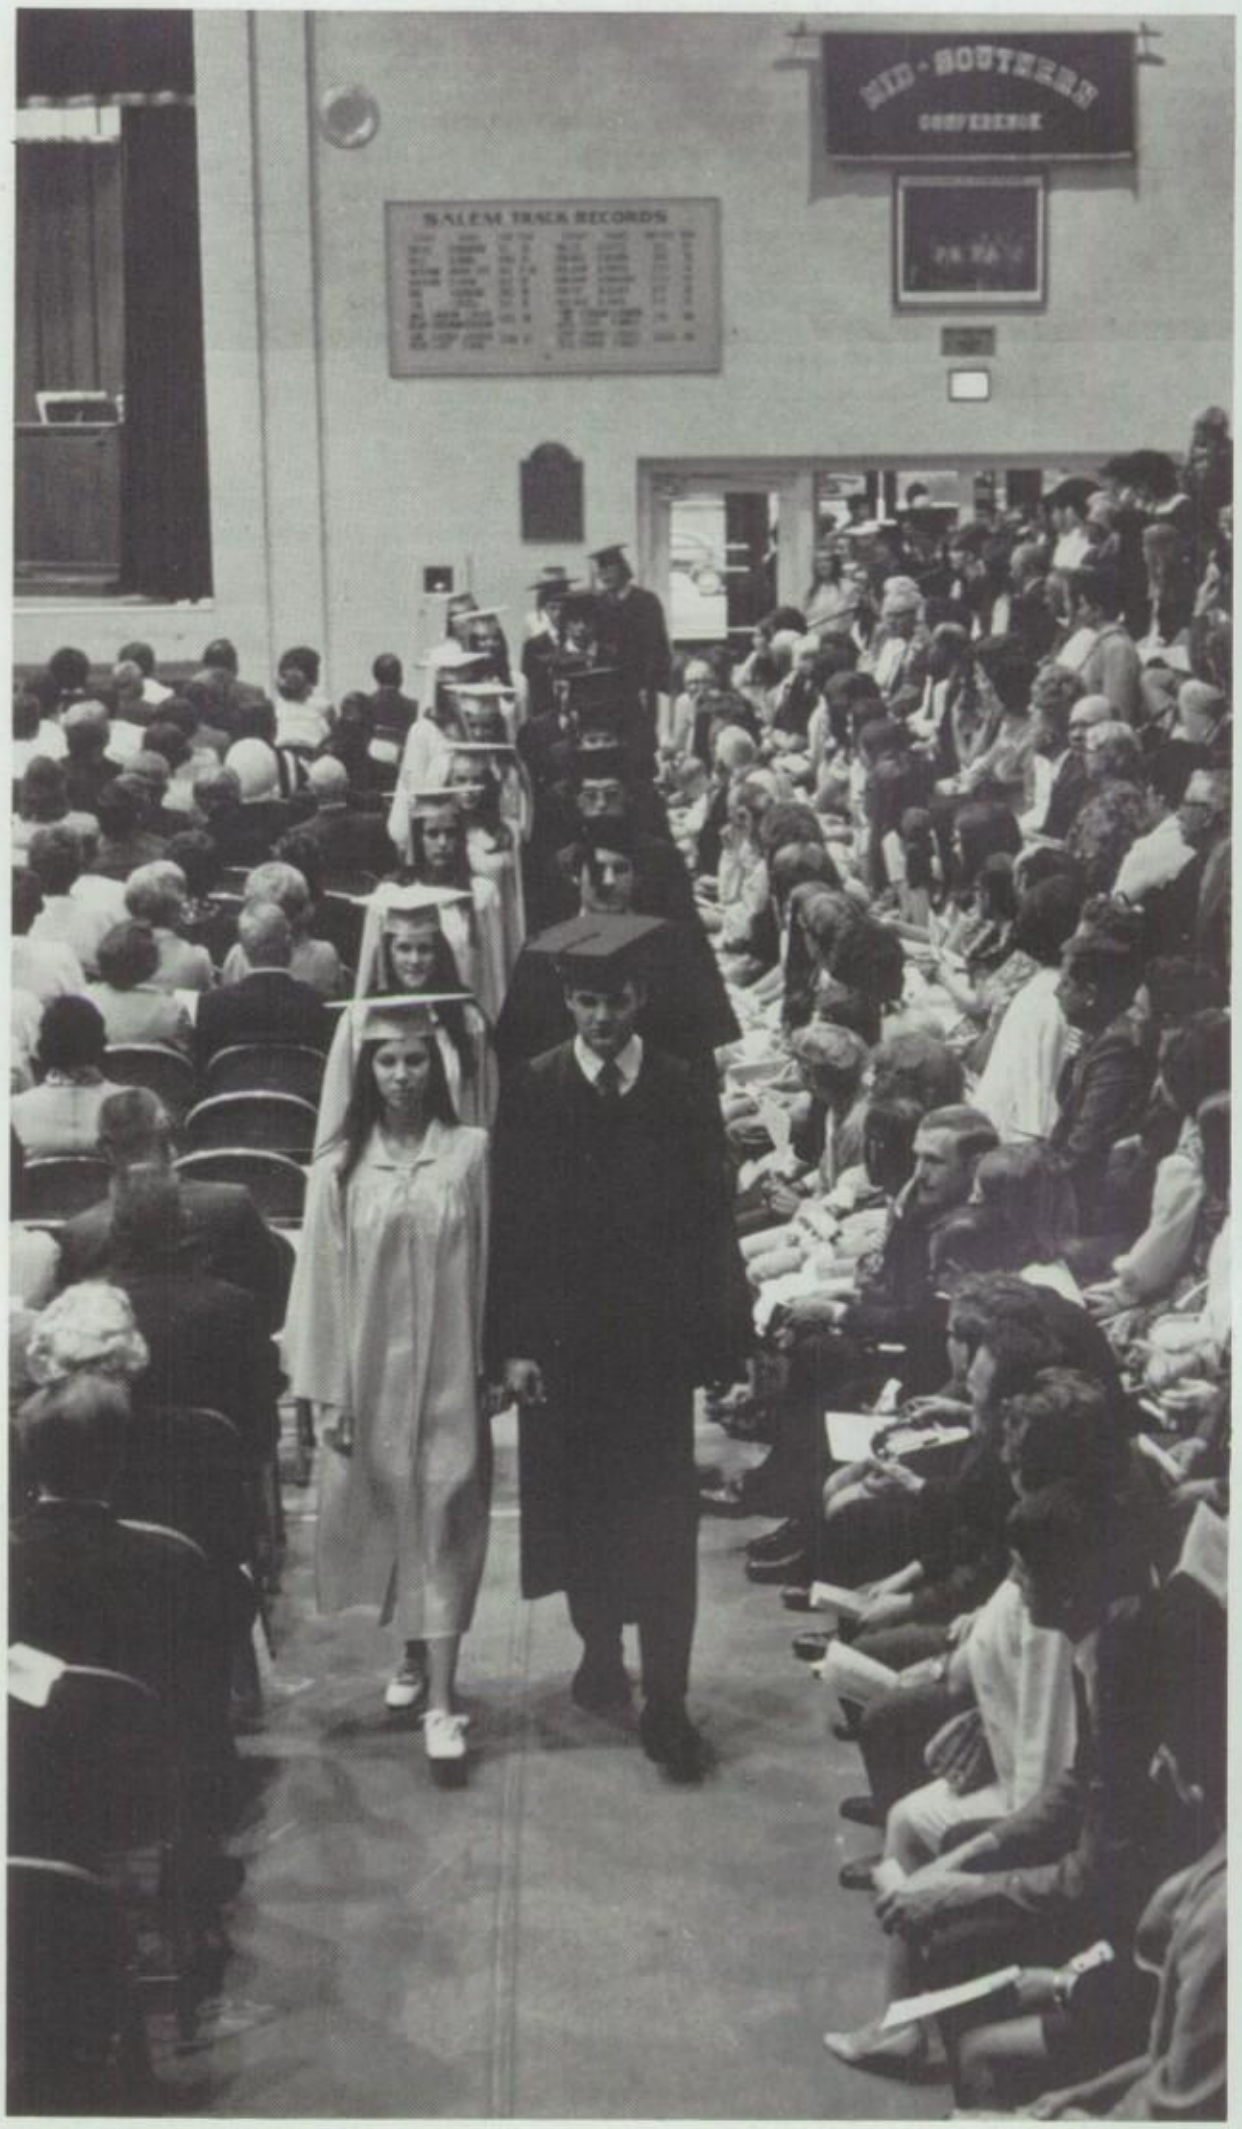
Graduation Marks an End and a Beginning for 154 Seniors at SHS

At eight o'clock on May 28, 1971, 154 seniors marched into Brooks Memorial Gymnasium and Commencement services began. Student talks were made by salutatorian Becky Apple and valedictorian Jane Hand. Dr. Harmon A. Baldwin addressed the graduating class and then diplomas were presented by Superintendent Whipple.

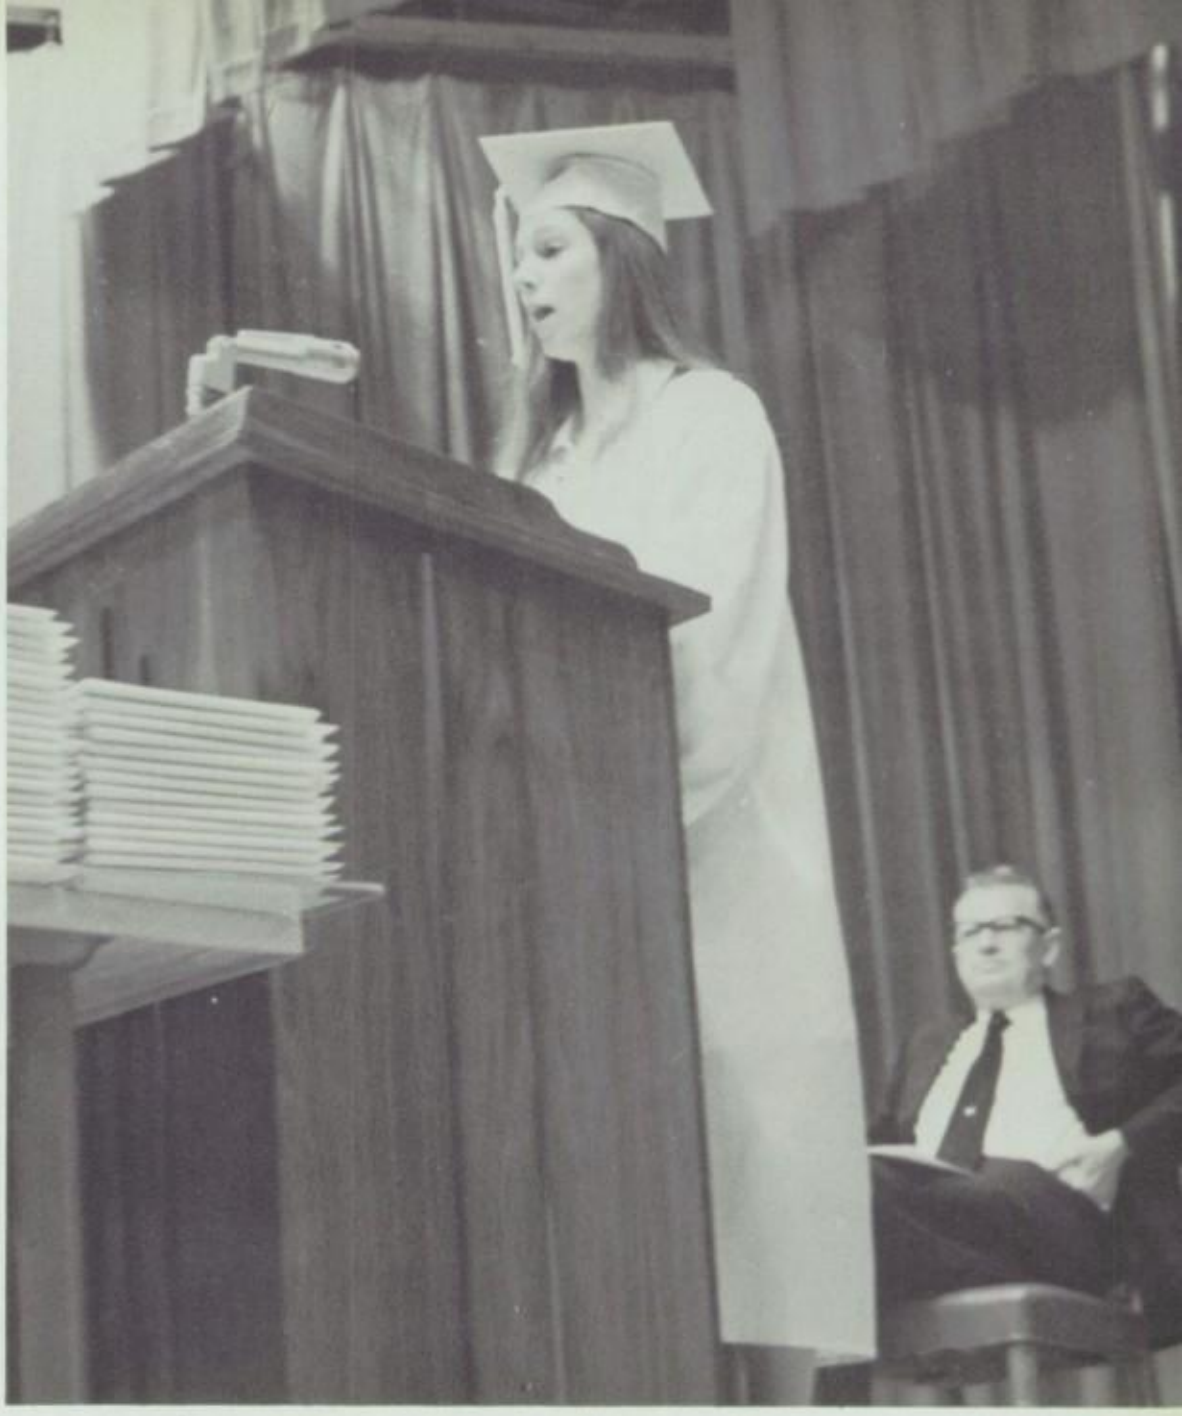
Cathy Mount and Greg Crouch gave the invocation and benediction.

Mike Barrow flashes a smile after receiving his long-awaited diploma.

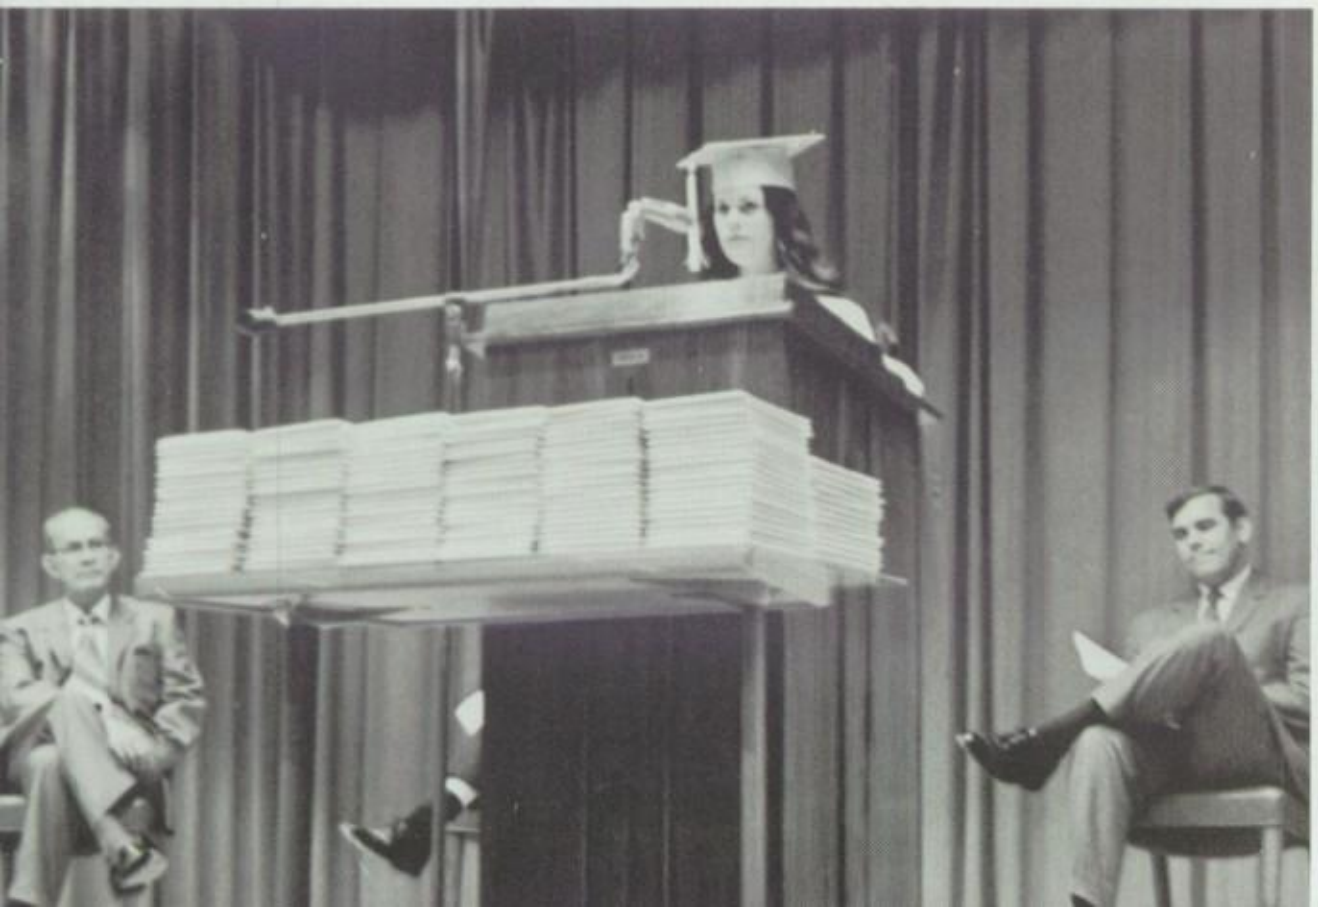


The processional of seniors marches into the gym to the rhythm of "Pomp and Circumstance."

Both the happiness and solemness of the occasion is shown on the faces of S. Hobbs and L. Purlee.



Confidently speaking to her graduating class-mates is valedictorian, Janet Hand.



Prior to the presentation of diplomas salutatorian Becky Apple addresses class of '71.

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven;

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up.

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silent, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

ECCLESIASTES 3:1-8
